RIPON COLLEGE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY, HARASSMENT, AND NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY
(the “Policy”)

1. Purpose

Ripon College is committed to providing an educational and employment environment that is free from discrimination based on protected characteristics, harassment, and retaliation for engaging in protected activity.

Ripon College values and upholds the equal dignity of all members of its community and strives to balance the rights of the parties in the resolution process during what is often a difficult time for all involved.

To ensure compliance with federal, state, and local civil rights laws and regulations, and to affirm its commitment to promoting the goals of fairness and equity in all aspects of the education program or activity, Ripon College has developed policies and procedures that provide for prompt, fair, and impartial resolution of allegations of protected characteristic discrimination, harassment, or allegations of retaliation.

2. Notice of Nondiscrimination

Ripon College seeks to comply with all federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and ordinances prohibiting discrimination in private post-secondary education institutions.

Ripon College does not discriminate against any employee, applicant for employment, student, or applicant for admission on the basis of actual or perceived:

- Citizenship status
- Color
- Disability (physical or mental)
- Ethnicity
- Gender expression
- Gender identity
- Marital status
- National origin (including ancestry)
- Pregnancy or related conditions

- or any other protected characteristic under applicable local, state, or federal law, including protections for those opposing discrimination or participating in any grievance process within the institution, with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and/or other human/civil rights agency.

This Policy covers nondiscrimination in both employment and access to educational opportunities. Therefore, any member of the Ripon College community whose acts deny, deprive, unreasonably interfere with or limit the education or employment, residential and/or social access, benefits, and/or opportunities of any member of the Ripon College community, guest, or visitor on the basis of that person’s actual or perceived protected characteristic(s), is in violation of this Policy.

These individuals are referred to as “Administrators,” “applicable Administrators,” and “members of the Nondiscrimination Team” throughout this Policy¹. Collectively, these individuals are responsible for providing comprehensive nondiscrimination education and training; coordinating Ripon College’s timely, thorough, and fair response, investigation, and resolution of all alleged prohibited conduct under this Policy; and monitoring the effectiveness of this Policy and related procedures to ensure an education and employment environment free from discrimination, harassment, and retaliation.

Ripon College recognizes that allegations under this Policy may include multiple forms of discrimination and harassment as well as violations of other Ripon College policies; may involve various combinations of students, employees, and other members of the Ripon College community; and may require the simultaneous attention of multiple Ripon College departments. Accordingly, all Ripon College departments will share information, combine efforts, and otherwise collaborate, to the maximum extent permitted by law and consistent with other applicable Ripon College policies, to provide uniform, consistent, efficient, and effective responses to alleged discrimination, harassment, or retaliation.

5. Mandated Reporting and Confidential Employees

All non-student Ripon College employees, other than those deemed Confidential Employees, are Mandated Reporters and are expected to promptly report all known details of actual or suspected discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and/or other prohibited conduct to appropriate officials immediately, with are some limited exceptions.

All student-employees serving as residence hall staff are Mandated Reporters for the purposes of sex-based discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and/or other sex-based prohibited conduct and are expected to promptly report all known details of actual or suspected sex-based discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and/or other sex-based prohibited conduct to appropriate officials immediately, with some limited exceptions.

Supportive measures may be offered as the result of such disclosures without formal Ripon College action.

Complainants may want to carefully consider whether they share personally identifiable details with Mandated Reporters, as those details must be shared with the Title IX Coordinator or other member of the Nondiscrimination Team.

If a Complainant expects formal action in response to their allegations, reporting to any Mandated Reporter can connect them with resources to report alleged crimes and/or Policy violations, and these employees will immediately pass Notice to the Title IX Coordinator or applicable Administrator (and/or police, if desired by the Complainant or required by law), who will act when an incident is reported to them.

There are two categories of Confidential Employees: 1) those with confidentiality bestowed by law or professional ethics, such as lawyers, medical professionals, clergy, and mental health counselors; and 2) those conducting human subjects research as part of a study approved by the Ripon College's Institutional Review Board (IRB). For those in category 1), above, to be able to respect confidentiality, they must be in a confidential relationship with the person reporting, such that they are within the scope of their licensure, professional ethics, or confidential role at the time of receiving the Notice. These individuals will maintain confidentiality except in extreme cases of immediacy of threat or danger or abuse of a minor, elder, or individual with a disability, or when required to disclose by law or court order.

If a Complainant would like the details of an incident to be kept confidential, the Complainant may speak with the following Confidential Employees, in their following official capacities:

- On-campus licensed professional counselors and staff
- On-campus health service providers and staff

Ripon counselors and/or the Employee Assistance Program, as applicable, are available to help free of charge and may be consulted on an emergency basis during normal business hours.

Failure of a Mandated Reporter, as described above in this section, to report an incident of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation of which they become aware is a violation of this Policy and can be subject to disciplinary action for failure to comply/failure to report. This also includes situations when a harasser is a Mandated Reporter. Such individuals are obligated to report their own misconduct, and failure to do so is a chargeable offense under this Policy.

A Mandated Reporter who is themselves a target of discrimination, harassment, or other misconduct under this Policy is not required to report their own experience, though they are, of course, encouraged to do so.

In addition, Complainants may speak with individuals unaffiliated with Ripon College without concern that Policy will require them to disclose information to the institution without permission:

- Licensed professional counselors and other medical providers
- Local rape crisis counselors
- Domestic violence resources
- Local or state assistance agencies
- Clergy/Chaplains
- Attorneys

6. Scope

This Policy is only applicable to alleged incidents that occur on or after August 1, 2024. For alleged incidents of sex discrimination or sexual harassment occurring prior to August 1, 2024, the policy and procedures in place at the time of the alleged incident apply. Applicable versions of those policies and procedures are available from the Title IX Coordinator.

This Policy applies to all applicants, employees, students, outside vendors and consultants during the course of business with Ripon College, and other individuals participating in or attempting to participate in Ripon College's program or activities, including education and employment.

This Policy prohibits all forms of discrimination on the basis of the protected characteristic(s), and may be applied to incidents, to patterns, and/or to the institutional culture/climate, all of which may be addressed in accordance with this Policy.

7. Jurisdiction

This Policy applies to Ripon College's education programs and activities (defined as including locations, events, or circumstances in which Ripon College exercises substantial control over both the Respondent and the context in which the conduct occurred), circumstances where Ripon College has disciplinary authority, and to misconduct occurring within any building owned or controlled by a Ripon College-recognized student organization. A Complainant does not have to be a member of the Ripon College community to file a Complaint, at the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator or other applicable Administrator.

This Policy may also apply to the effects of off-campus misconduct that limit or deny a person's access to Ripon College's education program or activities. Ripon College may also extend jurisdiction to off-campus and/or to online conduct when the conduct affects a substantial Ripon College interest.

A substantial Ripon College interest includes:

- 1) Any action that constitutes a criminal offense as defined by law. This includes, but is not limited to, single or repeat violations of any local, state, or federal law.
- 2) Any situation in which it is determined that the Respondent poses an imminent and serious threat to the health or safety of any student, employee, or other individual.
- 3) Any situation that significantly impinges upon the rights, property, or achievements of others, significantly breaches the peace, and/or causes social disorder.
- 4) Any situation that substantially interferes with Ripon College's educational interests or mission.

For disciplinary action to be issued under this Policy, the Respondent must be a Ripon College student or employee at the time of the alleged incident. If the Respondent is unknown or is not a member of the Ripon College community, the Title IX Coordinator / applicable Administrator will offer to assist the Complainant in identifying appropriate institutional and local resources and support options and will implement appropriate supportive measures and/or remedial actions (e.g., trespassing a person from campus). Ripon College can also assist in contacting local or institutional law enforcement if the individual would like to file a police report about criminal conduct.

All vendors serving Ripon College through third-party contracts are subject to the policies and procedures of their employers and/or to these policies and procedures to which their employer has agreed to be bound by their contracts.

When a party is participating in a dual enrollment or early college program, Ripon College will coordinate with the party's home institution to determine jurisdiction and coordinate providing supportive measures and responding to the complaint under the appropriate policy and procedures based on the allegations and identities of the parties.

When the Respondent is enrolled in or employed by another institution, the Title IX Coordinator or other applicable Administrator can assist the Complainant in contacting the appropriate individual at that institution, as it may be possible to pursue action under that institution's policies.

Similarly, the Title IX Coordinator or other applicable Administrator may be able to assist and support a student or employee Complainant who experiences discrimination in an externship, study abroad program, or other environment external to Ripon College where sexual harassment or nondiscrimination policies and procedures of the facilitating or host organization may give the Complainant recourse. If there are effects of that external conduct that impact a student or employee's work or educational environment, those effects can often be addressed remedially by the Nondiscrimination Team if brought to their attention.

8. Supportive Measures

Ripon College will offer and implement appropriate and reasonable supportive measures to the parties upon Notice of alleged discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation. Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate and reasonably available. They are offered, without fee or charge to the parties, to restore or preserve access to Ripon College's education program or activity, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties and/or Ripon College's educational environment and/or to deter discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation.

The Title IX Coordinator or other applicable Administrator promptly makes supportive measures available to the parties upon receiving Notice/Knowledge of a Complaint. At the time that supportive measures are offered, if a Complaint has not been filed, Ripon College will inform the Complainant, in writing, that they may file a Complaint with Ripon College either at that time or in the future. The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will work with a party to ensure that their wishes are considered with respect to any planned and implemented supportive measures.

Ripon College will maintain the confidentiality of the supportive measures, provided that confidentiality does not impair Ripon College's ability to provide those supportive measures. Ripon College will act to ensure as minimal an academic/occupational impact on the parties as possible. Ripon College will implement measures in a way that does not unreasonably burden any party.

These actions may include, but are not limited to:

- Referral to counseling, medical, and/or other healthcare services
- Referral to the Employee Assistance Program
- Referral to community-based service providers
- Visa and immigration assistance
- Student financial aid counseling
- Education to the institutional community or community subgroup(s)
- Altering campus housing assignment(s)
- Altering work arrangements for employees or student-employees
- Safety planning
- Providing campus safety escorts
- Providing transportation assistance
- Implementing contact restrictions (no contact orders) between the parties
- Academic support, extensions of deadlines, or other course/program-related adjustments
- Trespass, Persona Non Grata (PNG), or Be-On-the-Lookout (BOLO) orders
- Timely warnings
- Class schedule modifications, withdrawals, or leaves of absence

- Increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the campus
- Any other actions deemed appropriate by the Title IX Coordinator / applicable Administrator

Violations of no contact orders or other restrictions may be referred to appropriate student or employee conduct processes for enforcement or added as collateral misconduct allegations to an ongoing Complaint under this Policy.

The parties are provided with a timely opportunity to seek modification or reversal of Ripon College's decision to provide, deny, modify, or terminate supportive measures applicable to them. A request to do so should be made in writing to the Title IX Coordinator or applicable Administrator. An impartial employee other than the employee who implemented the supportive measures, who has authority to modify or reverse the decision, will determine whether to provide, deny, modify, or terminate the supportive measures if they are inconsistent with the Title IX regulatory definition of supportive measures. Ripon College will also provide the parties with the opportunity to seek additional modification or termination of supportive measures applicable to them if circumstances materially change. Ripon College typically renders decisions on supportive measures within seven (7) business days of receiving a request and provides a written determination to the impacted party(ies) and the Title IX Coordinator / applicable Administrator.

9. Online Harassment and Misconduct

Ripon College policies are written and interpreted broadly to include online manifestations of any of the behaviors prohibited below, when those behaviors occur in or have an effect on Ripon College's education program and activities, or when they involve the use of Ripon College networks, technology, or equipment.

Although Ripon College may not control websites, social media, and other venues through which harassing communications are made, when such communications are reported to Ripon College, it will engage in a variety of means to address and mitigate the effects. These means may include use of the Resolution Process to address off-campus conduct whose effects contribute to limiting or denying a person access to Ripon College's education program or activity.

10. Inclusion Related to Gender Identity/Expression

Ripon College strives to ensure that all individuals are safe, included, and respected in their education and employment environments, regardless of their gender identity or expression, including intersex, nonbinary, transgender, agender, two-spirit, and gender-diverse students and employees.

Discrimination and harassment on the basis of gender identity or expression are not tolerated by Ripon College. If a member of the Ripon College community believes they have been subjected to discrimination under this Policy, they should follow the appropriate reporting process described herein.

In upholding the principles of equity and inclusion, Ripon College supports the full integration and healthy development of those who are gender diverse and seeks to eliminate any stigma related to gender identity and expression.

Ripon College is committed to fostering a climate where all identities are valued, contributing to a more vibrant and diverse community. Ripon College will administratively address issues that some students and employees, including those identifying as intersex, transgender, agender, nonbinary, and gender diverse, may confront as they navigate systems originally designed around the assumption that gender is binary. As our society's understanding of gender evolves, so do Ripon College's processes and policies.

Concepts like misgendering and deadnaming may not be familiar to all but understanding them is essential to Ripon College's goal of being as welcoming and inclusive a community as possible.

Misgendering or mispronouncing is the intentional or unintentional use of pronouns or identifiers that are different from those used by an individual. Unintentional misgendering is usually resolved with a simple apology if someone clarifies their pronouns for you. Intentional misgendering is inconsistent with the type of community we hold ourselves out to be and may constitute a Policy violation if the effect is greater than de minimis harm. We each have a right to determine our own gender identity and expression, but we don't get to choose or negate someone else's.

Deadnaming, along with misgendering, can be traumatic to a person who is transgender, transitioning, nonbinary, or gender diverse. Deadnaming means using someone's birth-assigned (cisgender) name, rather than the name they have chosen.

To a person who is transgender, transitioning, nonbinary, or gender diverse, their cisgender identity may be something that is in their past — dead, buried, and behind them. To then revive their deadname could trigger issues, traumas, and experiences of the past that the individual has moved past, or is moving past, and can interfere with their health and well-being.

Again, unintentional deadnaming can often be addressed by a simple apology and an effort to use the person's chosen name. Intentional deadnaming could be a form of bullying, outing, or otherwise harassing an individual, and thus should be avoided.

This Policy should be interpreted consistent with the goals of maximizing the inclusion of intersex, transgender, transitioning, agender, nonbinary, and gender-diverse students and employees, including:

- Maintaining the privacy of all individuals consistent with law
- Ensuring all students have equal access to educational programming, activities, and facilities, including restrooms and locker rooms
- Ensuring all employees have equal access to employment opportunities and work, service, or health-related facilities
- Providing professional development for employees and education for students on topics related to gender inclusion
- Encouraging all students and employees to respect the pronoun usage and identities of all members of the Ripon College community

Ripon College uses a number of interventions to address concerns that are raised related to gender-based harassment or discrimination, including problem-solving, intervention, confrontation, investigation, and Policy enforcement. When conflicts arise between the right of members of the community to be free from gender-identity discrimination and those exercising their right to religious freedom, Ripon College will try to balance rights and interests to find mutually agreeable outcomes or compromises. When that is not possible, Ripon College will offer remedial solutions or enforce its Policies while also respecting the rights of all members of its community.

11. Prohibited Conduct

Students and employees are entitled to an educational and employment environment that is free of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. This Policy is not meant to inhibit or prohibit educational content or discussions inside or outside of the classroom that include germane, but controversial or sensitive, subject matters protected by academic freedom.

The sections below describe the specific forms of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation that are prohibited under this Policy. When speech or conduct is protected by academic freedom, it will not be considered a violation of Ripon College Policy, though supportive measures will be offered to those impacted.

All offense definitions below encompass actual and/or attempted offenses.

Any of the following offenses can be charged as or combined as pattern offenses, in which case the Notice of Investigation and Allegation (in sex-based matters) will clearly indicate that both individual incidents and a pattern of conduct are being investigated. A pattern may exist and be charged when there is a potential substantial similarity to incidents where the proof of one could make it more likely that the other(s) occurred, and vice versa. Patterns may exist based on target selection, similarity of offense, or other factors. Where a pattern is found, it can be the basis to enhance sanctions, accordingly.

Violation of any other Ripon College policies may constitute discrimination or harassment when motivated by actual or perceived protected characteristic(s), and the result is a limitation or denial of employment or educational access, benefits, or opportunities.

Ripon College shall not engage in, and prohibits all of the following:

A. Discrimination

Discrimination is different treatment with respect to a person's employment or participation in an education program or activity based, in whole or in part, upon the person's actual or perceived protected characteristic. Discrimination also includes allegations of a failure to provide reasonable accommodations as required by law or policy, such as for disability, religion, or creed.

Discrimination can take two primary forms:

1) Disparate Treatment Discrimination:

- Any intentional differential treatment of a person or persons that is based on a person's actual or perceived protected characteristic and that:
 - Excludes a person from participation in;
 - Denies the person benefits of; or
 - Otherwise adversely affects a term or condition of a person's participation in a Ripon College program or activity.

2) Disparate Impact Discrimination:

- Disparate impact occurs when policies or practices that appear to be neutral unintentionally result in a disproportionate impact on a protected group or person that:
 - Excludes a person from participation in;
 - Denies the person benefits of; or
 - Otherwise adversely affects a term or condition of a person's participation in a Ripon College program or activity.

B. Discriminatory Harassment

- unwelcome conduct on the basis of actual or perceived protected characteristic(s), that
- based on the totality of the circumstances,
- is subjectively and objectively offensive, and
- is so severe or pervasive,
- that it limits or denies a person's ability to participate in or benefit from Ripon College's education program or activity

C. Sex-based Harassment (Applicable under Title IX, Title VII, and the Fair Housing Act)

Sex-based Harassment is a form of sex discrimination and means sexual harassment and other harassment on the basis of sex,² including sex stereotypes, sex characteristics, pregnancy or related conditions, sexual orientation, and gender identity; sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking.

1) Quid Pro Quo:

- an employee, agent, or other person authorized by Ripon College,
- to provide an aid, benefit, or service under Ripon College’s education program or activity,
- explicitly or impliedly conditioning the provision of such aid, benefit, or service,
- on a person’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct.

2) Hostile Environment Harassment:

- unwelcome sex-based conduct, that
- based on the totality of the circumstances,
- is subjectively and objectively offensive, and
- is so severe or pervasive,
- that it limits or denies a person’s ability to participate in or benefit from Ripon College’s education program or activity

Ripon College reserves the right to address offensive conduct and/or harassment that (1) does not rise to the level of creating a hostile environment, or (2) that is of a generic nature and not based on a protected characteristic. Addressing such conduct will not result in the imposition of discipline under this Policy, but may be addressed through respectful conversation, remedial actions, education, effective Alternative Resolution, and/or other Informal Resolution mechanisms.

For assistance with Alternative Resolution and other Informal Resolution techniques and approaches, contact the Title IX Coordinator or other member of the Nondiscrimination Team.

3) Sexual Assault:³

a. Rape:

- Penetration, no matter how slight,
- of the vagina or anus,
- with any body part or object, or

² Throughout this Policy, “on the basis of sex” means conduct that is sexual in nature, or that is directed to the Complainant because of his/her/their actual or perceived sex or gender identity.

³ This would include having another person touch you sexually, forcibly, and/or without their consent.

- oral penetration by a sex organ of another person,
- without the consent of the Complainant.

b. Fondling:

- The touching of the private body parts of the Complainant (buttocks, groin, breasts),
- for the purpose of sexual gratification,
- without the consent of the Complainant,
- including instances where the Complainant is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of a temporary or permanent mental incapacity.

c. Incest:

- Sexual intercourse,
- between persons who are related to each other,
- within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by Wisconsin law.

d. Statutory Rape:

- Sexual intercourse,
- with a person who is under the statutory age of consent of 18.

4) Dating Violence, defined as:

- a. violence,
- b. on the basis of sex,
- c. committed by a person,
- d. who is in or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the Complainant.
 - i. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the Complainant's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. For the purposes of this definition—
 - a) Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
 - b) Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

5) Domestic Violence,⁴ defined as:

- a. violence,

⁴ To categorize an incident as Domestic Violence under this Policy, the relationship between the Respondent and the Complainant must be more than just two people living together as roommates. The people cohabitating must be current or former spouses or have an intimate relationship.

- b. on the basis of sex,
- c. committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the Complainant,
- d. by a person with whom the Complainant shares a child in common, or
- e. by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the Complainant as a spouse or intimate partner, or
- f. by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the Complainant under the domestic or family violence laws of Wisconsin, or
- g. by any other person against an adult or youth Complainant who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of Wisconsin.

6) Stalking, defined as:

- a. engaging in a course of conduct,
- b. on the basis of sex,
- c. directed at the Complainant, that
 - i. would cause a reasonable person to fear for the person's safety, or
 - ii. the safety of others; or
 - iii. suffer substantial emotional distress.

For the purposes of this definition—

- Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the Respondent directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property.
- Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the Complainant.
- Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

7) Sexual Exploitation:

- a person taking non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another, that does not constitute Sex-based Harassment as defined above,
- for their own benefit or for the benefit of anyone other than the person being exploited.

Examples of Sexual Exploitation include, but are not limited to:

- Sexual voyeurism (such as observing or allowing others to observe a person undressing or using the bathroom or engaging in sexual acts, without the consent of the person being observed)
- Invasion of sexual privacy (e.g., doxxing)
- Knowingly making an unwelcome disclosure of (or threatening to disclose) a person's sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression
- Taking pictures, video, or audio recording of another person in a sexual act, or in any other sexually related activity when there is a reasonable expectation of privacy during the activity, without the consent of all involved in the activity; or exceeding the boundaries of consent (such as allowing another person to hide in a closet and observe sexual activity, or disseminating sexual pictures without the photographed person's consent), including the making or posting of non-consensual pornography
- Prostituting another person
- Engaging in sexual activity with another person while knowingly infected with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) or a sexually transmitted disease (STD) or infection (STI), without informing the other person of the virus, disease, or infection
- Causing or attempting to cause the incapacitation of another person (through alcohol, drugs, or any other means) for the purpose of compromising that person's ability to give consent to sexual activity, or for the purpose of making that person vulnerable to non-consensual sexual activity
- Misappropriation of another person's identity on apps, websites, or other venues designed for dating or sexual connections (e.g., spoofing)
- Forcing a person to take an action against that person's will by threatening to show, post, or share information, video, audio, or an image that depicts the person's nudity or sexual activity
- Knowingly soliciting a minor for sexual activity
- Engaging in sex trafficking
- Knowingly creating, possessing, or disseminating child sexual abuse images or recordings
- Creating or disseminating synthetic media, including images, videos, or audio representations of individuals doing or saying sexually related

things that never happened, or placing identifiable real people in fictitious pornographic or nude situations without their consent (i.e., Deepfakes)

D. Other Prohibited Conduct

1) Bullying:

- repeated and/or severe aggressive behavior
- on the basis of a protected characteristic
- that is likely to intimidate or intentionally hurt, control, or physically or mentally diminish the Complainant.

2) Endangerment:

- on the basis of a protected characteristic:
 - threatening or causing physical harm;
 - extreme verbal, emotional, or psychological abuse; or
 - other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person or damages their property.

3) Hazing:

- any act or action
- on the basis of a protected characteristic
- that does or is likely to endanger the mental or physical health or safety of any person
- as it relates to a person's initiation, admission into, or affiliation with any Ripon College group or organization.

For the purposes of this definition:

- It is not necessary that a person's initiation or continued membership is contingent upon participation in the activity, or that the activity was sanctioned or approved by the student group or student organization, for an allegation of hazing to be upheld.
- It shall not constitute an excuse or defense to a hazing allegation that the participants took part voluntarily, gave consent to the conduct, voluntarily assumed the risks or hardship of the activity, or that no injury was suffered or sustained.
- The actions of alumni, active, new, and/or prospective members of a student group or student organization may be considered hazing.
- Hazing is not confined to the student group or student organization with which the person subjected to the hazing is associated.

4) Retaliation:

- Adverse action, including intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination,
- against any person,
- by Ripon College, a student, employee, or a person authorized by Ripon College to provide aid, benefit, or service under Ripon College's education program or activity,
- for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by law or Policy, or because the person has engaged in protected activity, including reporting information, making a Complaint, testifying, assisting, or participating or refusing to participate in any manner in an investigation or Resolution Process under this Policy, including an Informal Resolution process, or in any other appropriate steps taken by Ripon College to promptly and effectively end any sex discrimination in its education program or activity, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects.

It is not retaliation for Ripon College to pursue Policy violations against those who make materially false statements in bad faith in the course of a resolution under this Policy. However, the determination of responsibility, by itself, is not sufficient to conclude that any party has made a materially false statement in bad faith.

5) Unauthorized Disclosure:⁵

- Distributing or otherwise publicizing materials created or produced during an investigation or Resolution Process except as required by law or as expressly permitted by Ripon College; or
- publicly disclosing institutional work product that contains personally identifiable information without authorization or consent.

6) Failure to Comply/Process Interference:

- Intentional failure to comply with the reasonable directives of the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator in the performance of their official duties, including with the terms of a no contact order; or
- Intentional failure to comply with emergency removal or interim suspension terms; or
- Intentional failure to comply with sanctions; or
- Intentional failure to adhere to the terms of an Informal Resolution agreement; or
- Intentional failure to comply with mandated reporting duties as defined in this Policy; or

⁵ Nothing in this section restricts the ability of the parties to: obtain and present evidence, including by speaking to witnesses (as long as it does not constitute retaliation under this Policy); consult with their family members, confidential resources, or Advisors; or otherwise prepare for or participate in the Resolution Process.

- Intentional interference with the Resolution Process, including, but not limited to:
 - Destruction of or concealing of evidence
 - Actual or attempted solicitation of knowingly false testimony or providing false testimony or evidence
 - Intimidating or bribing a witness or party

F. Consent, Force, and Incapacitation

As used in this Policy, the following definitions and understandings apply:

1) Consent

Consent is defined as:

- knowing, and
- voluntary, and
- clear permission
- by word or action

- to engage in sexual activity.⁶

Individuals may perceive and experience the same interaction in different ways. Therefore, it is the responsibility of each party to determine that the other has consented before engaging in the activity.

If consent is not clearly provided prior to engaging in the activity, consent may be ratified by word or action at some point during the interaction or thereafter, but clear communication from the outset is strongly encouraged.

For consent to be valid, there must be a clear expression in words or actions that the other individual consented to that specific sexual conduct. Consent is evaluated from the perspective of what a reasonable person would conclude are mutually understandable words or actions. Reasonable reciprocation can establish consent. For example, if someone kisses you, you can kiss them back (if you want to) without the need to explicitly obtain their consent to be kissed back.

Consent can also be withdrawn once given, as long as the withdrawal is reasonably and clearly communicated. If consent is withdrawn, sexual activity should cease within a reasonably immediate time.

Silence or the absence of resistance alone should not be interpreted as consent. Consent is not demonstrated by the absence of resistance. While resistance is not required or necessary, it is a clear demonstration of non-consent.

Consent to some sexual contact (such as kissing or fondling) cannot be assumed to be consent for other sexual activity (such as intercourse). A current or previous intimate relationship is not sufficient to constitute consent. If an individual expresses conditions on their willingness to consent (e.g., use of a condom) or limitations on the scope of their consent, those conditions and limitations must be respected. If a sexual partner shares the clear expectation for the use of a condom, or to avoid internal ejaculation, and those expectations are not honored, the failure to use a condom, removing a condom, or internal ejaculation can be considered acts of sexual assault.

Proof of consent or non-consent is not a burden placed on either party involved in a Complaint. Instead, the burden remains on Ripon College to determine whether its Policy has been violated. The existence of consent is based on the totality of the circumstances evaluated from the perspective of a reasonable person in the same or similar circumstances, including the context in which the alleged misconduct occurred and any similar and previous patterns that may be evidenced.

Going beyond the boundaries of consent is prohibited. Thus, unless a sexual partner has consented to slapping, hitting, hair pulling, strangulation, or other physical roughness during otherwise consensual sex, those acts may constitute dating violence or sexual assault.⁷

2) Force

Force is the use of physical violence and/or physical imposition to gain sexual access. Sexual activity that is forced is, by definition, non-consensual, but non-consensual sexual activity is not necessarily forced. Force is conduct that, if sufficiently severe, can negate consent.

Force also includes threats, intimidation (implied threats), and coercion that is intended to overcome resistance or produce consent (e.g., “Have sex with me or I’ll hit you,” which elicits the response, “Okay, don’t hit me. I’ll do what you want.”).

Coercion is unreasonable pressure for sexual activity. Coercive conduct, if sufficiently severe, can render a person’s consent ineffective, because it is not voluntary. When someone makes clear that they do not want to engage in sexual activity, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive. Coercion is evaluated based on the frequency, intensity, isolation, and duration of the pressure involved.

3) Incapacitation

Incapacitation is a state where a person is incapable of giving consent. An incapacitated person cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because they lack the capacity to give knowing/informed consent (e.g., to understand the “who, what, when, where, why, and how” of their sexual interaction). A person cannot consent if they are unable to understand what is happening or are disoriented, helpless, asleep, or unconscious for any reason, including because of alcohol or other drug consumption.

This Policy also covers a person whose incapacity results from a temporary or permanent physical or mental health condition, involuntary physical restraint, and/or the consumption of incapacitating substances.

⁷ Consent in relationships must also be considered in context. When Parties consent to BDSM (bondage, discipline, sadism, masochism) or other forms of kink, non-consent may be shown by the use of a safe word. Resistance, force, violence, or even saying “no” may be part of the kink and thus consensual.

Incapacitation is determined through consideration of all relevant indicators of a person's state and is not synonymous with intoxication, impairment, blackout, and/or being drunk.

If the Respondent neither knew nor should have known the Complainant to be physically or mentally incapacitated, the Respondent is not in violation of this Policy. "Should have known" is an objective, reasonable person standard that assumes that a reasonable person is both sober and exercising sound judgment.

12. Consensual Relationships

There are inherent risks in any romantic or sexual relationship between individuals in unequal positions (such as teacher and student, supervisor and employee). These relationships may be less consensual than perceived by the individual whose position confers power. The relationship also may be viewed in different ways by each of the parties, particularly in retrospect. Furthermore, circumstances may change, and conduct that was previously welcome may become unwelcome. Even when both parties have consented at the outset to a romantic or sexual involvement, this past consent may not remove grounds for a later charge of a violation of applicable sections of the faculty/staff handbooks. Ripon College does not wish to interfere with private choices regarding personal relationships when these relationships do not interfere with the goals and policies of Ripon College. For the personal protection of members of this community, relationships in which power differentials are inherent (faculty- student, staff-student, administrator-student, supervisor-supervisee, faculty of different ranks) are generally discouraged.

Consensual romantic or sexual relationships in which one party maintains a direct supervisory or evaluative role over the other party are unethical. Therefore, persons with direct supervisory or evaluative responsibilities who are involved in such relationships must bring those relationships to the timely attention of the respective vice president to whom the employee reports, and will likely result in the necessity to remove the employee from the supervisory or evaluative responsibilities, or shift the student out of being supervised or evaluated by someone with whom they have established a consensual relationship. This includes Resident Advisors (RAs) and students over whom they have direct responsibility. While no relationships are prohibited by this Policy, an employee's failure to self-report such relationships to a supervisor as required can result in disciplinary action of the employee that could include dismissal from Ripon College.

13. Standard of Proof

Ripon College uses the preponderance of the evidence standard of proof when determining whether a Policy violation occurred. This means that Ripon College will decide whether it is more likely than not, based upon the available information at the time of the decision, that the Respondent is in violation of the alleged Policy violation(s).

14. Reports/Complaints of Discrimination, Harassment, and/or Retaliation

A Report provides notice to Ripon College of an allegation or concern about discrimination, harassment, or retaliation and provides an opportunity for the Title IX Coordinator (or other appropriate Nondiscrimination Team member) to provide information, resources, and supportive measures. A Complaint provides notice to Ripon College that the Complainant would like to initiate an investigation or other appropriate resolution procedures. A Complainant or individual may initially make a Report and may decide at a later time to make a Complaint. Reports or Complaints of discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation may be made by filing a Complaint with, or giving verbal Notice directly to, the Title IX Coordinator or to any member of the Nondiscrimination Team. Such a Complaint may be made at any time (including during non-business hours) by using the telephone number, email address, or by mail to the office of the Title IX Coordinator or any other Nondiscrimination Team member listed in this Policy.

Reporting carries no obligation to initiate a Complaint, and in most situations, Ripon College is able to respect a Complainant's request to not initiate a resolution process. However, there may be circumstances, such as pattern behavior, allegations of severe misconduct, or a compelling threat to health and/or safety, where Ripon College may need to initiate a resolution process. If a Complainant does not wish to file a Complaint, Ripon College will maintain the privacy of information to the extent possible. The Complainant should not fear a loss of confidentiality by giving Notice that allows Ripon College to discuss and/or provide supportive measures, in most circumstances.

15. Time Limits on Reporting

There is no time limitation on providing Notice or making a Complaint. However, if the Respondent is no longer subject to Ripon College's jurisdiction and/or significant time has passed, the ability to investigate, respond, and/or provide remedies may be more limited or impossible.

Acting on Notice or a Complaint significantly impacted by the passage of time (including, but not limited to, the rescission or revision of the Policy) is at the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator (or other appropriate member of the Nondiscrimination Team); they may document allegations for future reference, offer supportive measures and/or remedies, and/or engage in informal or formal action, as appropriate.

16. False Allegations and Evidence

Deliberately false and/or malicious accusations under this Policy are a serious offense and will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action. This does not include allegations that are made in good faith but are ultimately shown to be erroneous or do not result in a determination of a Policy violation.

Additionally, witnesses and parties who knowingly provide false evidence, tamper with or destroy evidence, or deliberately mislead an official conducting an investigation or resolution process can be subject to discipline under appropriate Ripon College policies.

17. Confidentiality/Privacy

Ripon College makes every effort to preserve the parties' privacy. Ripon College will not share the identity of any individual who has made a Complaint of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation; any Complainant; any individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation; any Respondent; or any witness, except as permitted by, or to fulfill the purposes, of applicable laws and regulations (e.g., Title IX), Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and its implementing regulations, or as required by law; including any investigation, or resolution proceeding arising under these policies and procedures.^{8,9}

For the purpose of this Policy, the terms privacy, confidentiality, and privilege have distinct meanings.

- Privacy. Means that information related to a complaint will be shared with a limited number of Ripon College employees who “need to know” in order to assist in providing supportive measures or evaluating, investigating, or resolving the Complaint. All employees who are involved in Ripon College’s response to Notice under this Policy receive specific training and guidance about sharing and safeguarding private information in accordance with federal and state law.
- Confidentiality. Exists in the context of laws or professional ethics (including Title IX) that protect certain relationships, including clinical care, mental health providers, and counselors. When a Complainant shares information with a Confidential Employee, the Confidential Employee does not need to disclose that information to the Nondiscrimination Team. The Confidential Employee will, however, provide the Complainant with the contact information for the appropriate member of the Nondiscrimination Team, assist the Complainant in reporting, if desired, and provide them with information on how the Nondiscrimination Team can assist them. With respect to Confidential Employees, information may be disclosed under the following circumstances, depending on any ethical obligations such Confidential Employee may have under their professional licensure: (1) the reporting person gives written consent for its disclosure; (2) there is a concern that the person will likely cause serious physical harm to self or others; or (3) the information concerns conduct involving suspected abuse or neglect of a minor under the age of 18, elders, or persons with disabilities. Non-identifiable information may be shared by Confidential Employees for statistical tracking purposes as required by the Clery

⁹ 34 C.F.R. § 99

Act/Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). Other information may be shared as required by law.

- Privilege. Exists in the context of laws that protect certain relationships, including attorneys, spouses, and clergy. Privilege is maintained by a provider unless a court orders release or the holder of the privilege (e.g., a client, spouse, parishioner) waives the protections of the privilege. Ripon College treats employees who have the ability to have privileged communications as Confidential Employees.

Ripon College reserves the right to determine which Ripon College officials have a legitimate educational interest in being informed about student-related incidents that fall under this Policy, pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Only a small group of officials who need to know will typically be told about the Complaint. Information will be shared as necessary with Investigators, Decision-Making Panel members, Appeal Decision-Makers, witnesses, the parties, and the parties' Advisors. The circle of people with this knowledge will be kept as tight as possible to preserve the parties' rights and privacy, and release is governed by the institution's unauthorized disclosure policy.

Ripon College may contact students' parents/guardians to inform them of situations in which there is a significant and articulable health and/or safety risk but will usually consult with the student prior to doing so.

Unauthorized Disclosure of Information

Parties and Advisors are prohibited from disclosing information obtained by Ripon College through the Resolution Process, to the extent that information is the work product of Ripon College (meaning it has been produced, compiled, or written by Ripon College for purposes of its investigation and resolution of a Complaint), without authorization. It is also a violation of this Policy to publicly disclose institutional work product that contains a party or witness's personally identifiable information without authorization or consent. Violation of this Policy is subject to significant sanctions.

18. Emergency Removal/Interim Actions/Leaves

Ripon College can act to remove a student Respondent accused of Sex Discrimination or Sex-based Harassment from its education program or activities, partially or entirely, on an emergency basis when an individualized safety and risk analysis has determined that an imminent and serious threat to the health or safety of any student or other individual justifies removal. This risk analysis is performed by the Title IX Coordinator and may be done in conjunction with the Dean of Students or other campus resources. Employees are subject to existing procedures for interim actions and leaves.

19. Federal Timely Warning Obligations

Ripon College must issue timely warnings for reported incidents that pose a serious or continuing threat of bodily harm or danger to members of the Ripon College community. Ripon College will ensure that a Complainant's name and other identifying information is not disclosed, while still providing enough information for community members to make safety decisions in light of the potential danger.

20. Amnesty

The Ripon College community encourages the reporting of misconduct and crimes by Complainants and witnesses. Sometimes, Complainants or witnesses are hesitant to give Notice to Ripon College officials or participate in resolution processes because they fear that they themselves may be in violation of certain policies, such as underage drinking or use of illicit drugs at the time of the incident. Respondents may hesitate to be forthcoming during the process for the same reasons.

It is in the best interests of the Ripon College community that Complainants choose to give Notice of misconduct to Ripon College officials, that witnesses come forward to share what they know, and that all parties be forthcoming during the process.

To encourage reporting and participation in the process, Ripon College offers parties and witnesses amnesty from minor policy violations, such as underage alcohol consumption or the use of illicit drugs, related to the incident. Granting amnesty is a discretionary decision made by Ripon College, and amnesty does not apply to more serious allegations, such as physical abuse of another or illicit drug distribution. Ripon College also maintains an amnesty policy for students in addition to witnesses who offer help to others in need.

Sometimes, employees are hesitant to report discrimination, harassment, or retaliation they have experienced for fear of getting in trouble themselves. Ripon College may, at its discretion, offer employee Complainants amnesty from such policy violations (typically more minor policy violations) related to the incident.

21. Preservation of Evidence

The preservation of evidence is critical to potential criminal prosecution and to obtaining restraining/protective orders, and it is particularly time sensitive. Ripon College will inform the Complainant of the importance of preserving evidence by taking actions such as the following:

Sexual Assault

- Seek forensic medical assistance at the nearest hospital, ideally within 120 hours of the incident (sooner is better).
- Avoid urinating, showering, bathing, washing hands or face, or douching, if possible, but evidence may still be collected even if you do.
- If oral sexual contact took place, refrain from smoking, eating, drinking, or brushing teeth.

- If clothes are changed, place soiled clothes in a paper bag (plastic destroys evidence) or a secure evidence container (if provided one by law enforcement)
- Seeking medical treatment can be essential, even if it is not for the purpose of collecting forensic evidence.

Stalking / Dating Violence / Domestic Violence / Sex-Based Harassment

- Evidence in the form of text and voice messages will be lost in most cases if the Complainant changes their phone number.
 - Make a secondary recording of any voice messages and/or save the audio files to a cloud server.
 - Take screenshots and/or a video recording of any text messages or other electronic messages (e.g., Instagram, Snapchat, Facebook).
- Save copies of email and social media correspondence, including notifications related to account access alerts.
- Take time-stamped photographs of any physical evidence, including notes, gifts, etc., in place when possible.
- Save copies of any messages, including those showing any request for no further contact.
- Obtain copies of call logs showing the specific phone number being used rather than a saved contact name if possible.

During the initial meeting between the Complainant and Title IX Coordinator, the importance of taking these actions will be discussed, if timely.

22. Federal Statistical Reporting Obligations

Certain institutional officials (those deemed Campus Security Authorities) have a duty to report the following for federal statistical reporting purposes (Clery Act):

- 1) All “primary crimes,” which include criminal homicide, sexual assault, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft, and arson
- 2) Hate crimes, which include any bias-motivated primary crime as well as any bias-motivated larceny or theft, simple assault, intimidation, or destruction, damage, or vandalism of property
- 3) Violence Against Women Act (VAWA-based crimes), which include sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking¹⁰
- 4) Arrests and referrals for disciplinary action for weapons law violations, liquor law violations, and drug law violations

All personally identifiable information is kept private, but statistical information regarding the type of incident and its general location (on- or off-campus or in the surrounding area, but no addresses) must be shared with Clery Coordinator for publication in the Annual Security Report and daily campus crime log. Campus Security Authorities include student affairs / student conduct staff, campus security, local police, coaches, athletic directors, residence life staff, student activities staff, human resources staff, advisors to student organizations, and any other official with significant responsibility for student and campus activities.

23. Independence, Training, and Conflicts of Interest

The Nondiscrimination Team acts with independence and authority, free from bias and conflicts of interest. The applicable member of the Nondiscrimination Team as set forth in Section 3 oversees all resolutions under this Policy and these procedures. Investigators, members of the Decision-Making Panel, and Appeal Decision-Makers are vetted and trained to ensure they are not biased for or against any party in a specific Complaint, or for or against Complainants and/or Respondents, generally.

Members of the Nondiscrimination Team and all Investigators, members of the Decision-Making Panel, and Appeal Decision-Makers receive annual training related to their respective roles. This training may include, but is not limited to:

- The scope of this Policy and the Resolution Process
- How to conduct investigations that protect the safety of Complainants and Respondents and promote accountability

- Issues of relevance of questions and evidence

- Issues of relevance and creating an Investigation Report that fairly summarizes relevant and not impermissible evidence
- How to determine appropriate sanctions in reference to all forms of harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation allegations
- Recordkeeping

All Investigators, members of the Decision-Making Panel, and other persons who are responsible for implementing Ripon College’s Title IX policies and procedures will receive training related to their duties under Title IX promptly upon hiring or change of position that alters their duties under Title IX or this part, and annually thereafter. Materials will not rely on sex stereotypes. Training topics include, but are not limited to:

- How to conduct a sex discrimination resolution process consistent with the Policy, including issues of disparate treatment, disparate impact, sex-based harassment, quid pro quo, hostile environment harassment, and retaliation
- The meaning and application of the term “relevant” in relation to questions and evidence, and the types of evidence that are impermissible regardless of relevance under the Title IX Regulations

- Any other training deemed necessary to comply with Title IX

To raise any concern involving bias, conflict of interest, misconduct, or discrimination by the Title IX Coordinator / Nondiscrimination Team, contact the Ripon College President Victoria Folsie at folsiev@ripon.edu. Concerns of bias, misconduct, discrimination, or a potential conflict of interest by Investigators, members of the Decision-Making Panel, and Appeal Decision-Makers should be raised with the Title IX Coordinator or other appropriate member of the Nondiscrimination Team as soon as they arise.

24. Publication of Notice of Nondiscrimination.

Ripon College will provide a notice of nondiscrimination to students, employees, applicants for admission and employment, and all professional organizations holding professional agreements with Ripon College. Such notice of nondiscrimination will be in the form of the Notice of Nondiscrimination found at Appendix D (the “Notice of Nondiscrimination”).

Ripon College will prominently include the Notice of Nondiscrimination (in its long format shown in Appendix D) on its website and in each handbook, catalog, announcement, bulletin, and application form that it makes available to students, employees, applicants for admission and employment, and professional organizations holding professional agreements with Ripon College, or which are otherwise used in connection with the recruitment of students or employees.

If necessary, due to the format or size of any such publication, Ripon College may instead include the Short Format Notice of Nondiscrimination shown in Appendix D.

25. Revision of this Policy

This Policy succeeds previous policies addressing discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, and/or retaliation, though previous policies and procedures remain in force for incidents occurring before August 1, 2024. The Nondiscrimination Team reviews and updates these policies and procedures regularly. Ripon College reserves the right to make changes to this document as necessary, and once those changes are posted online, they are in effect.

If government laws or regulations change or court decisions alter the requirements in a way that impacts this Policy, this Policy will be construed to comply with the most recent government laws, regulations, or court holdings.

This document does not create legally enforceable protections beyond the protections of the background state and federal laws that frame such policies and codes, generally.

This Policy is effective August 1, 2024.

RESOLUTION PROCESS FOR ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY, HARASSMENT, AND NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY
(the “Resolution Process”)

1. Overview

Ripon College will act on any Notice, Complaint, or Knowledge of a potential violation of the Ripon College Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Nondiscrimination Policy (the “Policy”) that the Title IX Coordinator, any other member of the Nondiscrimination Team, or any other Mandated Reporter receives by applying the Resolution Process below.

The procedures below apply to all allegations of discrimination on the basis of an actual or perceived protected characteristic, harassment, retaliation, or other prohibited conduct involving students, employees, or third parties.

2. Notice/Complaint

Upon receipt of Notice, a Complaint, or Knowledge of an alleged Policy violation, the Title IX Coordinator or other applicable Administrator will initiate a prompt initial evaluation to determine Ripon College’s next steps. The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will contact the Complainant / source of the Notice to offer supportive measures, provide information regarding resolution options, and determine how they wish to proceed.

3. Collateral Misconduct

Collateral misconduct is defined to include potential violations of other Ripon College policies not incorporated into the Policy that occur in conjunction with alleged violations of the Policy, or that arise through the course of the investigation, for which it makes sense to provide one resolution for all allegations. Thus, the collateral allegations may be charged along with potential violations of the Policy, to be resolved jointly under these Procedures. In such circumstances, the Title IX Coordinator or other applicable Administrator may consult with Ripon College officials who typically oversee such conduct (e.g., human resources, student conduct, academic affairs) to solicit their input as needed on what charges should be filed, but the exercise of collateral charges under these procedures is within the discretion of the Nondiscrimination Team. All other allegations of misconduct unrelated to incidents covered by the Policy will typically be addressed separately through procedures described in the student and employee handbooks.

4. Initial Evaluation

The Title IX Coordinator / applicable Administrator conducts an initial evaluation, typically within seven (7) business days of receiving Notice/Complaint/Knowledge of alleged misconduct.¹¹ The initial evaluation typically includes:

- Assessing whether the reported conduct may reasonably constitute a violation of the Policy.
 - If the conduct may not reasonably constitute a violation of the Policy, the matter is typically dismissed from this process, consistent with the dismissal provision in these procedures. It may then be referred to another process, if applicable.
- Determining whether Ripon College has jurisdiction over the reported conduct, as defined in the Policy.
 - If the conduct is not within Ripon College jurisdiction, the matter is typically dismissed from this process, consistent with the dismissal provision in these procedures. If applicable, the conduct will be referred to the appropriate Ripon College office for resolution.
- Offering and coordinating supportive measures for the Complainant.
- Offering and coordinating supportive measures for the Respondent, as applicable.
- Notifying the Complainant, or the person who reported the allegation(s), of the available resolution options, including a supportive and remedial response, an Informal Resolution option, or the Resolution Process described below.
- Determining whether the Complainant wishes to initiate a Complaint.
- If a Complaint is made, notifying the Respondent of the available resolution options, including a supportive and remedial response, an Informal Resolution option, or the Resolution Process described below.

Helping a Complainant to Understand Resolution Options

If the Complainant indicates they wish to initiate a Complaint (in a manner that can reasonably be construed as reflecting intent to make a Complaint), the Title IX Coordinator / applicable Administrator will help to facilitate the Complaint, which will include working with the Complainant to determine whether the Complainant wishes to pursue one of three resolution options:

- a supportive and remedial response, and/or
- Informal Resolution, or
- the Resolution Process described below.

The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will seek to abide by the wishes of the Complainant but may have to take an alternative approach depending on their analysis of the situation.

¹¹ If circumstances require, the Title IX Coordinator will designate another person to oversee the Resolution Process should an allegation be made about the Title IX Coordinator or the Title IX Coordinator be otherwise unavailable, unable to fulfill their duties, or have a conflict of interest.

If the Complainant elects for the Resolution Process below, and the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator has determined the Policy applies and that Ripon College has jurisdiction, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will provide the parties with a Notice of Investigation and Allegation(s) and will initiate an investigation consistent with these Procedures.

If any party indicates (either verbally or in writing) that they want to pursue an Informal Resolution option, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will assess whether the matter is suitable for Informal Resolution and refer the matter accordingly.

If the Complainant indicates (either verbally or in writing) that they do not want any action taken, no Resolution Process will be initiated (unless deemed necessary by the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator), though the Complainant can elect to initiate one later, if desired.

Administrator Authority to Initiate a Complaint

If the Complainant does not wish to file a Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator (or other applicable member of the Nondiscrimination Team), who has ultimate discretion as to whether a Complaint is initiated, will offer supportive measures and determine whether to initiate a Complaint themselves. To make this determination, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will evaluate that request to determine if there is a serious and imminent threat to someone's safety or if Ripon College cannot ensure equal access without initiating a Complaint. The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will consider the following non-exhaustive factors to determine whether to file a Complaint:

- The Complainant's request not to initiate a Complaint.
- The Complainant's reasonable safety concerns regarding initiating a Complaint.
- The risk that additional acts of discrimination would occur if a Complaint is not initiated.
- The severity of the alleged discrimination, including whether the discrimination, if established, would require the removal of a Respondent from campus or imposition of another disciplinary sanction to end the discrimination and prevent its recurrence.
- The age and relationship of the parties, including whether the Respondent is a Ripon College employee;
- The scope of the alleged discrimination, including information suggesting a pattern, ongoing discrimination, or discrimination alleged to have impacted multiple individuals;
- The availability of evidence to assist the Decision-Making Panel in determining whether discrimination occurred;
- Whether Ripon College could end the alleged discrimination and prevent its recurrence without initiating its resolution process.

If deemed necessary, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator may consult with appropriate Ripon College employees, and/or conduct a violence risk assessment¹² to aid their determination whether to initiate a Complaint.

¹² See detailed information regarding Violence Risk Assessment in Appendix C.

When the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator initiates a Complaint, they do not become the Complainant. The Complainant is the person who experienced the alleged conduct that could constitute a violation of this Policy.

5. Dismissal

Ripon College may dismiss a Complaint if, at any time during the investigation or Resolution Process, one or more of the following grounds are met:

- 1) Ripon College is unable to identify the Respondent after taking reasonable steps to do so
- 2) Ripon College no longer enrolls or employs the Respondent
- 3) A Complainant voluntarily withdraws any or all of the allegations in the Complaint, and the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator declines to initiate a Complaint
- 4) Ripon College determines the conduct alleged in the Complaint would not constitute a Policy violation, if proven

A Complainant who decides to withdraw a Complaint may later request to reinstate or refile it.

Upon any dismissal, Ripon College will promptly send the Complainant written notification of the dismissal and the rationale for doing so. If the dismissal occurs after the Respondent has been made aware of the allegations, Ripon College will also notify the Respondent of the dismissal.

This dismissal decision is appealable by any party.

6. Appeal of Dismissal

The Complainant may appeal a dismissal of their Complaint. The Respondent may also appeal the dismissal of the Complaint if dismissal occurs after the Respondent has been made aware of the allegations. All dismissal appeal requests must be filed within three (3) business days of the notification of the dismissal.

The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will notify the parties of any appeal of the dismissal. If, however, the Complainant appeals, but the Respondent was not notified of the Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator must then provide the Respondent with a NOIA and will notify the Respondent of the Complainant's appeal with an opportunity to respond.

Throughout the dismissal appeal process, Ripon College will:

- Implement dismissal appeal procedures equally for the parties.
- Assign a trained Dismissal Appeal Officer who did not take part in an investigation of the allegations or dismissal of the Complaint.

- Provide the parties a reasonable and equal opportunity to make a statement in support of, or challenging, the dismissal.
- Notify the parties of the result of the appeal and the rationale for the result.

The grounds for dismissal appeals are limited to:

- 1) Procedural irregularity that would change the outcome.
- 2) New evidence that would change the outcome and that was not reasonably available when the dismissal was decided.
- 3) The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, Investigator, or other member of the Decision-Making Panel had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual Complainant or Respondent that would change the outcome.

The appeal should specify at least one of the grounds above and provide any reasons or supporting evidence for why the ground is met. Upon receipt of a written dismissal appeal request from one or more parties, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will share the petition with all other parties and provide three (3) business days for other parties and the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator to respond to the request. At the conclusion of the response period, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will forward the appeal, as well as any response provided by the other parties and/or the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator to the Dismissal Appeal Officer for consideration.

If the Request for Appeal does not provide information that meets the grounds in this Policy, the Dismissal Appeal Officer will deny the request, and the parties, their Advisors, and the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will be notified in writing of the denial and the rationale.

If any of the asserted grounds in the appeal satisfy the grounds described in this Policy, then the Dismissal Appeal Officer will notify all parties and their Advisors, and the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, of their decision and rationale in writing. The effect will be to reinstate the Complaint.

In most circumstances, appeals are confined to a review of the written documentation or record of the original determination and pertinent documentation regarding the specific appeal grounds. The Dismissal Appeal Officer has seven (7) business days to review and decide on the appeal, though extensions can be granted at the Title IX Coordinator's / Administrator's discretion, and the parties will be notified of any extension.

Appeal decisions are deferential to the original determination, making changes only if there is a compelling justification to do so.

The Dismissal Appeal Officer may consult with the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator and/or legal counsel on questions of procedure or rationale for clarification, if needed. The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will maintain documentation of all such consultation.

7. Emergency Removal/Interim Suspension of a Student

Ripon College may emergency remove a student accused of Sex Discrimination or Sex-Based Harassment upon receipt of Notice / Knowledge, a Complaint, or at any time during the Resolution Process. Prior to an emergency removal, Ripon College will conduct an individualized risk assessment and may remove the student if that assessment determines that an imminent and serious threat to the health or safety of a Complainant or any students, employees, or other persons arising from the allegations of sex discrimination justifies such action. Students accused of other forms of discrimination (not sex-based) are subject to interim suspension, which can be imposed for safety reasons.

When an emergency removal or interim suspension is imposed, wholly or partially, the affected student will be notified of the action, which will include a written rationale, and the option to challenge the emergency removal or interim suspension within two (2) business days of the notification. Upon receipt of a challenge, the Title IX Coordinator will meet with the student (and their Advisor, if desired) as soon as reasonably possible thereafter to allow them to show cause why the removal / action should not be implemented or should be modified.

This meeting is not a hearing on the merits of the allegation(s), but rather is an administrative process intended to determine solely whether the emergency removal or interim suspension is appropriate, should be modified, or should be lifted. When this meeting is not requested within two (2) business days, objections to the emergency removal or interim suspension will be deemed waived. A student can later request a meeting to show why they are no longer an imminent and serious threat because conditions related to imminence or seriousness have changed. A Complainant and their Advisor may be permitted to participate in this meeting if the Title IX Coordinator determines it is equitable for them to do so.

The Respondent may provide information, including expert reports, witness statements, communications, or other documentation for consideration prior to or during the meeting. When applicable, a Complainant may provide information to the Title IX Coordinator for review.

An emergency removal or interim suspension may be affirmed, modified, or lifted as a result of a requested review or as new information becomes available. The Title IX Coordinator will communicate the final decision in writing, typically within three (3) business days of the review meeting.

8. Placing an Employee on Leave

When the Respondent is an employee, or a student employee accused of misconduct in the course of their employment, Ripon reserves the right to place the Respondent employee on leave during the pendency of the investigation and resolution process.

9. Counter-Complaints

Ripon College is obligated to ensure that the Resolution Process is not abused for retaliatory purposes. Although Ripon College permits the filing of counter-complaints, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will use an initial evaluation, described above, to assess whether the allegations in the counter-complaint are made in good faith. When counter-complaints are not made in good faith, they will not be permitted. They will be considered potentially retaliatory and may constitute a violation of the Policy.

Counter-complaints determined to have been reported in good faith will be processed using the Resolution Process below. At the Title IX Coordinator's / Administrator's discretion, investigation of such claims may take place concurrently or after resolution of the underlying initial Complaint.

10. Advisors in the Resolution Process

This Section 10 will be followed in matters where sex-based discrimination, harassment, or retaliation are alleged. For all other matters, the processes described in this Section 10 are at the discretion of the applicable Administrator.

A. Who Can Serve as an Advisor?

The parties may each have an Advisor (friend, mentor, family member, attorney, or any other individual a party chooses) present with them for all meetings and interviews within the Resolution Process, including intake. The parties may select whomever they wish to serve as their Advisor as long as the Advisor is eligible and available.¹³

A party may elect to change Advisors during the process and is not obligated to use the same Advisor throughout. Parties are expected to provide the Title IX Coordinator with timely notification if they change Advisors. If a party changes Advisors, consent to share information with the previous Advisor is assumed to be terminated, and a release for the new Advisor must be submitted.

Ripon College may permit parties to have more than one Advisor, or an Advisor and a support person, upon special request to the Title IX Coordinator. The decision to grant this request is at the Title IX Coordinator's sole discretion and will be granted equitably to all parties.

B. Advisor's Role in the Resolution Process

¹³ "Available" means the party cannot insist on an Advisor who simply doesn't have inclination, time, or availability. The Advisor cannot have institutionally conflicting roles, such as being an administrator who has an active role in the matter, or a supervisor who must monitor and implement sanctions. Additionally, choosing an Advisor who is also a witness in the process creates potential for bias and conflicts of interest. A party who chooses an Advisor who is also a witness can anticipate that issues of potential bias will be explored by the Decision-Making Panel.

Advisors should help the parties to prepare for each meeting and are expected to advise ethically, with integrity, and in good faith. Advisors may not provide testimony or speak on behalf of their advisee unless given specific permission to do so.

The parties are expected to ask and respond to questions on their own behalf throughout the Resolution Process. Although the Advisor generally may not speak on behalf of their advisee, the Advisor may consult with their advisee, either privately as needed, or by conferring or passing notes during any Resolution Process meeting or interview. For longer or more involved discussions, the parties and their Advisors should ask for breaks to allow for private consultation.

C. Records Shared with Advisors

Advisors are entitled to the same opportunity as their advisee to access relevant evidence, and/or the same written investigation report that accurately summarizes this evidence.

Advisors are expected to maintain the confidentiality of the records Ripon College shares with them, per Section 17 of the Policy addressing Confidentiality. Advisors may not disclose any Ripon College work product or evidence Ripon College obtained solely through the Resolution Process for any purpose not explicitly authorized by Ripon College.

Ripon College may restrict the role of any Advisor who does not respect the sensitive nature of the process or who fails to abide by Ripon College's confidentiality expectations.

D. Advisor Expectations

Ripon College generally expects an Advisor to adjust their schedule to allow them to attend Ripon College meetings / interviews when planned, but Ripon College may change scheduled meetings / interviews to accommodate an Advisor's inability to attend, if doing so does not cause an unreasonable delay.

Ripon College may also make reasonable provisions to allow an Advisor who cannot be present in person to attend a meeting / interview by telephone, video conferencing, or other similar technologies.

All Advisors are subject to the same Ripon College policies and procedures, regardless of whether they are attorneys. Advisors are expected to advise without disrupting proceedings.

E. Advisor Policy Violations

Any Advisor who oversteps their role as defined by the Policy, who shares information or evidence in a manner inconsistent with the Policy, or who refuses to comply with Ripon College's established rules of decorum will be warned. If the Advisor continues to disrupt or otherwise fails to respect the limits of the Advisor role, the meeting/interview may be ended, or other appropriate measures implemented, including Ripon College requiring the party to use a different Advisor.

11. Resolution Options Overview

This Resolution Process, consisting of Informal Resolution or Administrative Resolution, is Ripon College's chosen approach to addressing all forms of discrimination on the basis of protected characteristics, harassment, retaliation, and other prohibited conduct under the Policy. The process considers the parties' preferences but is ultimately determined at the Title IX Coordinator's / Administrator's discretion.

Resolution proceedings are confidential. All individuals present at any time during the Resolution Process are expected to maintain the confidentiality of the proceedings in accordance with the Policy.

A. Informal Resolution

To initiate Informal Resolution, a Complainant or Respondent may make such a request to the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator at any time prior to a final determination, or the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator may offer the option to the parties, in writing. Ripon College will obtain voluntary, written confirmation that all parties wish to resolve the matter through Informal Resolution before proceeding and will not pressure the parties to participate in Informal Resolution.

Before initiation of an Informal Resolution process, Ripon College will provide the parties with a NOIA that explains:

- The allegations.
- The requirements of the Informal Resolution process.
- That, prior to agreeing to a resolution, any party has the right to withdraw from the Informal Resolution process and to initiate or resume Ripon College's Administrative Resolution Process.
- That the parties' agreement to a resolution at the conclusion of the Informal Resolution process will preclude the parties from initiating or resuming the Resolution Process arising from the same allegations.
- The potential terms that may be requested or offered in an Informal Resolution agreement, including notification that an Informal Resolution agreement is binding only on the parties.
- What information Ripon College will maintain, and whether and how it could disclose such information for use in its Resolution Process.

Ripon College offers four categories of Informal Resolution:

- 1) Supportive Resolution. When the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator can resolve the matter informally by providing supportive measures (only) designed to remedy the situation.
- 2) Educational Conversation. When the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator can resolve the matter informally by having a conversation with the Respondent to discuss the Complainant's concerns and institutional expectations or can accompany the Complainant in their desire to confront the conduct.
- 3) Accepted Responsibility. When the Respondent is willing to accept responsibility for violating Policy and is willing to agree to actions that will be enforced similarly to sanctions, and the Complainant(s) and Ripon College are agreeable to the resolution terms.
- 4) Alternative Resolution. When the parties agree to resolve the matter through an alternative resolution mechanism (which could include, but is not limited to, mediation, shuttle negotiation, restorative practices, facilitated dialogue, etc.), as described below.

The individual facilitating an Informal Resolution must be trained and cannot be the Investigator, member of the Decision-Making Panel, or Appeal Decision-Maker.

It is not necessary to pursue Informal Resolution first in order to pursue an Administrative Resolution. Any party participating in Informal Resolution can withdraw from the Informal Resolution process at any time and initiate or resume the Administrative Resolution process.

The parties may agree, as a condition of engaging in Informal Resolution, on what statements made or evidence shared during the Informal Resolution process will not be considered in the Administrative Resolution process, should Informal Resolution not be successful, unless agreed to by all parties.

If an investigation is already underway, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator has discretion to determine if an investigation will be paused, if it will be limited, or if it will continue during the Informal Resolution process.

For any category of Informal Resolution, once the parties have agreed upon a resolution in writing, the matter will be closed and will not be appealable, and no Administrative Process will take place.

Categories of Informal Resolution

(1) Supportive Resolution

The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will meet with the Complainant to determine reasonable supportive measures that are designed to restore or preserve the Complainant's access to Ripon College's education program and activity. Such measures can be modified as the Complainant's needs evolve over time or circumstances change. If the Respondent has received the NOIA, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator may also provide reasonable supportive measures for the Respondent as deemed appropriate. This option is available when the Complainant does not want to engage the other resolution options, and the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator does not initiate a Complaint.

(2) Educational Conversation

The Complainant(s) may request that the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator address their allegations by meeting (with or without the Complainant) with the Respondent(s) to discuss concerning behavior and institutional policies and expectations. Such a conversation is non-disciplinary and non-punitive. Respondent(s) are not required to attend such meetings, nor are they compelled to provide any information if they attend. The conversation will be documented as the Informal Resolution for the matter, if it takes place. In light of this conversation, or the Respondent's decision not to attend, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator may also implement remedial actions to ensure that policies and expectations are clear and to minimize the risk of the recurrence of any behaviors that may not align with Policy.

(3) Accepted Responsibility¹⁴

The Respondent may accept responsibility for any or all of the alleged Policy violations at any point during the Resolution Process. If the Respondent indicates an intent to accept responsibility for all alleged Policy violations, the ongoing process will be paused, and the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will determine whether Informal Resolution is an option.

¹⁴In Section 19 below, there is a description of a process to waive the decision-making step of the Resolution Process if a Respondent decides to admit to violating the charged Policies. That section and this one are similar, but there are meaningful differences. In this section, the Parties must agree to the resolution, and the Respondent in essence self-sanctions as part of the Informal Resolution by agreeing to voluntarily comply with whatever the terms are to which the Parties agree. Section 19, in contrast, is unilateral. Neither the Complainant nor the Title IX Coordinator determine eligibility. It is simply a waiver of steps in the process by the Respondent, who can admit violations and accept sanctions assigned by the Decision-Making Panel, if they choose to. No Complainant approval is sought or needed. Under Section 19, the outcome involves sanctioning imposed by Ripon College, rather than an agreement to self-sanction, as outlined in this section.

If Informal Resolution is available, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will determine whether all parties and Ripon College are able to agree on responsibility, restrictions, sanctions, restorative measures, and/or remedies. If so, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator implements the accepted finding that the Respondent is in violation of the Policy, implements agreed-upon restrictions and remedies, and determines the appropriate responses in coordination with other appropriate administrator(s), as necessary.

This resolution is not subject to appeal once all parties indicate their written agreement to all resolution terms. When the parties cannot agree on all terms of resolution, the Resolution Process will either continue or resume.

When a resolution is reached, the appropriate sanction(s) or responsive actions are promptly implemented to effectively stop the discrimination or harassment, prevent its recurrence, and remedy the effects of the discriminatory conduct, both on the Complainant and the community.

(4) Alternative Resolution

Ripon College offers a variety of alternative resolution mechanisms to best meet the specific needs of the parties and the nature of the allegations. Alternative resolution may involve agreement to pursue individual or community remedies, including targeted or broad-based educational programming or training; supported direct conversation or interaction with the Respondent(s); indirect action by the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator or other appropriate Ripon College officials; and other forms of resolution that can be tailored to the needs of the parties. Some alternative resolution mechanisms will result in an agreed-upon outcome, while others are resolved through dialogue. All parties must consent to the use of an alternative resolution approach, and the parties may, but are not required to, have direct or indirect contact during an alternative resolution process.

The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator may consider the following factors to assess whether alternative resolution is appropriate, or which form of alternative resolution may be most successful for the parties:

- The parties' amenability to alternative resolution
- Likelihood of potential resolution, considering any power dynamics between the parties
- The nature and severity of the alleged misconduct
- The parties' motivation to participate
- Civility of the parties
- Results of a violence risk assessment / ongoing risk analysis
- Respondent's disciplinary history
- Whether an emergency removal or other interim action is needed

- Skill of the alternative resolution facilitator with this type of Complaint
- Complaint complexity
- Emotional investment / capability of the parties
- Rationality of the parties
- Goals of the parties
- Adequate resources to invest in alternative resolution (e.g., time, staff)

The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator has the authority to determine whether alternative resolution is available or successful, to facilitate a resolution that is acceptable to all parties, and/or to accept the parties' proposed resolution, usually through their Advisors, often including terms of confidentiality, release, and non-disparagement.

Parties do not have the authority to stipulate restrictions or obligations for individuals or groups that are not involved in the alternative resolution process. The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will determine whether additional individual or community remedies are necessary to meet the institution's compliance obligations in addition to the alternative resolution.

The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator maintains records of any resolution that is reached and will provide notification to the parties of what information is maintained. Failure to abide by the resolution agreement may result in appropriate responsive / disciplinary actions (e.g., dissolution of the agreement and resumption of the Resolution Process, referral to the conduct process for failure to comply, application of the enforcement terms of the agreement). The results of Complaints resolved by alternative resolution are not appealable.

If an Informal Resolution option is not available or selected, Ripon College will initiate or continue an investigation and subsequent Administrative Resolution Process to determine whether the Policy has been violated.

B. Administrative Resolution Process

See Section 21 below.

12. Notice of Investigation and Allegations (NOIA)

This Section 12 will be followed in matters where sex-based discrimination, harassment, or retaliation are alleged. For all other matters, the processes described in this Section 12 are at the discretion of the applicable Administrator.

Prior to an investigation, the Title IX Coordinator will provide the parties with a detailed written NOIA. Amendments and updates to the NOIA may be made as the investigation progresses and more information becomes available regarding the addition or dismissal of various allegations.

For climate / culture investigations that do not have an identifiable Respondent, the NOIA will be sent to the department / office / program head for the area / program being investigated.

The NOIA typically includes:

- A meaningful summary of all allegations
- The identity of the involved parties (if known)
- The precise misconduct being alleged
- The date and location of the alleged incident(s) (if known)
- The specific policies / offenses implicated
- A description of, link to, or copy of the applicable procedures
- A statement that the parties are entitled to an equal opportunity to access the relevant and not otherwise impermissible evidence
- The name(s) of the Investigator(s), along with a process to notify the Title IX Coordinator of any conflict of interest that the Investigator(s) may have in advance of the interview process,
- A statement that Ripon College presumes the Respondent is not responsible for the reported misconduct unless and until the evidence supports a different determination
- A statement that determinations of responsibility are made at the conclusion of the process and that the parties will be given an opportunity during the review and comment period to inspect and review all relevant evidence
- A statement that retaliation is prohibited
- Information about the confidentiality of the process, including that the parties and their Advisors (if applicable) may not share Ripon College work product obtained through the Resolution Process
- A statement that the parties may have an Advisor of their choice who may accompany them through all steps of the Resolution Process
- A statement informing the parties that Ripon College's Policy prohibits knowingly making false statements, including knowingly submitting false information during the Resolution Process
- Detail on how a party may request disability accommodations or other support assistance during the Resolution Process
- A link to Ripon College's VAWA Brochure
- An instruction to preserve any evidence that is directly related to the allegations

Notification will be made in writing and may be delivered by one or more of the following methods: in person, mailed to the parties' local or permanent address(es) as indicated in official Ripon College records, or emailed to the parties' Ripon College-issued email or designated accounts. Once mailed, emailed, and/or received in person, the notification will be presumptively delivered.

13. Resolution Timeline

Ripon College will make a good faith effort to complete the Resolution Process within sixty to ninety (60-90) business days, including any appeals, which the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator can extend as necessary for appropriate cause. The parties will receive regular updates on the progress of the Resolution Process, as well as notification and a rationale for any extensions or delays, and an estimate of how much additional time will be needed to complete the process.

Investigations are completed expeditiously, normally within sixty (60) business days, though some investigations may take longer, depending on issues such as the nature, extent, and complexity of the allegations, witness availability, law enforcement involvement, and other factors.

If a party or witness chooses not to participate in the Resolution Process or becomes unresponsive, Ripon College reserves the right to continue it without their participation to ensure a prompt resolution. Non-participatory or unresponsive parties retain the rights outlined in this Policy and the opportunity to participate in the Resolution Process.

Ripon College may undertake a short delay in its investigation (several days to a few weeks) if circumstances require. Such circumstances include but are not limited to a request from law enforcement to temporarily delay the investigation, the need for language assistance, the absence of parties and/or witnesses, and/or health conditions. Ripon College will promptly resume its Resolution Process as soon as feasible. During such a delay, Ripon College will implement and maintain supportive measures for the parties as deemed appropriate.

Ripon College action(s) or processes are not typically altered or precluded on the grounds that civil or criminal charges involving the underlying incident(s) have been filed or that criminal charges have been dismissed or reduced.

Ripon College will make a good faith effort to complete the Resolution Process as promptly as circumstances permit and will regularly communicate with the parties to update them on the progress and timing of the process.

14. Ensuring Impartiality

Any individual materially involved in the administration of the Resolution Process, including the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, Investigator(s), and other members of the Decision-Making Panel, may neither have nor demonstrate a conflict of interest or bias for a party generally, or for a specific Complainant or Respondent.

The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will vet the assigned Investigator(s), members of the Decision-Making Panel, and Appeal Decision-Makers for impartiality by ensuring there are no actual or apparent conflicts of interest or disqualifying biases. At any time during the Resolution Process, the parties may raise a concern regarding bias or conflict of interest, and the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will determine whether the concern is reasonable and supportable.

If so, a replacement will be assigned, and the impact of the bias or conflict, if any, will be remedied. If the source of the conflict of interest or bias is the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, concerns should be raised with Ripon College President.

The Resolution Process involves an objective evaluation of all available relevant and not otherwise impermissible evidence, including evidence that supports that the Respondent engaged in a Policy violation and evidence that supports that the Respondent did not engage in a Policy violation. Credibility determinations may not be based solely on an individual's status or participation as a Complainant, Respondent, or witness. All parties have a full and fair opportunity, through the investigation process, to suggest witnesses and questions, to provide evidence, and to receive a written investigation report that accurately summarizes this evidence.

15. Investigator Appointment

Once an investigation is initiated, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator appoints one or more Investigator(s) to conduct it. These Investigators shall be properly trained and either internal or external to the Ripon College community.

16. Witness Role and Participation in the Investigation

Employees (not including Complainant and Respondent) are required to cooperate with and participate in Ripon College's investigation and Resolution Process. Student witnesses and witnesses from outside the Ripon College community cannot be required to participate but are encouraged to cooperate with Ripon College investigations and to share what they know about a Complaint.

Interviews may be conducted in person, via online video platforms (e.g., Zoom, Microsoft Teams, FaceTime, WebEx), or, in limited circumstances, by telephone. Ripon College will take appropriate steps to ensure the security/privacy of remote interviews.

Parties and witnesses may also provide written statements in lieu of interviews or choose to respond to written questions, if deemed appropriate by the Investigator(s), though not preferred.

17. Interview Recording

It is standard practice for Investigators to create records of all interviews pertaining to the Resolution Process. The parties may review copies of their own interviews upon request. No unauthorized audio or video recording of any kind is permitted during investigation meetings.

All interviews are recorded, and all involved persons should be made aware of the audio and/or video recording. The recording and/or transcript of those meetings will be provided to the parties for their review, after which the parties may pose additional questions to each other.

Those subsequent meetings or interviews are also recorded and/or transcribed and shared with the parties.

18. Evidentiary Considerations

The Investigator(s) and the Decision-Making Panel will only consider evidence that is deemed relevant and not otherwise impermissible.

Relevant evidence is that which may aid in determining whether the allegation occurred, or whether the behavior constitutes a violation of Policy.

Impermissible evidence is defined as evidence that relates to the Complainant's sexual interests or prior sexual conduct, unless 1) evidence about the Complainant's prior sexual conduct is offered to prove that someone other than the Respondent committed the alleged conduct, or 2) is evidence about specific incidents of the Complainant's prior sexual conduct with the Respondent that is offered to prove consent.

The fact of prior consensual sexual conduct occurred between the Complainant and Respondent does not by itself demonstrate or imply the Complainant's consent or preclude a determination that sex-based harassment occurred.

Previous disciplinary action of any kind involving the Respondent may not be considered unless there is an allegation of a pattern of misconduct. Such information may also be considered in determining an appropriate sanction upon a determination of responsibility. Barring a pattern allegation, this information is only considered at the sanction stage of the process and is not shared until then.

Within the limitations stated above, the investigation and determination can consider character evidence, if offered, but that evidence is unlikely to be relevant unless it is fact evidence or relates to a pattern of conduct.

19. Respondent Admits Responsibility

At any point in the proceedings, if a Respondent elects to admit to the charged violations and waive further process, the Decision-Making Panel is authorized to accept that admission, adopt it as their finding / final determination, and administer sanctions. This would waive the Respondent's right to appeal. The Complainant retains their right to appeal a determination when a Respondent admits responsibility.

20. Investigation

All investigations are adequate, thorough, reliable, impartial, prompt, and fair. They involve interviewing all relevant parties and witnesses, obtaining relevant evidence, and identifying sources of expert information, as necessary.

After an interview, parties and witnesses will be asked to verify the accuracy of the recording, transcript, or summary of their interview. They may submit changes, edits, or clarifications. If the parties or witnesses do not respond within the time period designated for verification, objections to the accuracy of the recording, transcript, or summary will be deemed to have been waived, and no changes will be permitted.

Ripon College may consolidate Complaints against more than one Respondent, or by more than one Complainant against one or more Respondents, when the allegations arise from the same facts or circumstances or implicate a pattern, collusion, and/or other shared or similar actions.

The Investigator(s) typically take(s) the following steps, if not already completed and not necessarily in this order:

- Determine the identity and contact information of the Complainant.
- Identify all offenses implicated by the alleged misconduct and notify the Complainant and Respondent of all specific policies implicated.
- Assist the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, if needed, with conducting a prompt initial evaluation to determine if the allegations indicate a potential Policy violation.
- Work with the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, as necessary, to prepare the initial NOIA. The NOIA may be amended with any additional or dismissed allegations.
- Commence a thorough, reliable, and impartial investigation by identifying issues and developing a strategic investigation plan, including a witness list, evidence list, intended investigation timeframe, and order of interviews for the parties and witnesses.
- When participation of a party is expected, provide that party with written notification of the date, time, and location of the meeting, as well as the expected participants and purpose.
- Make good faith efforts to notify each party of any meeting or interview involving another party, in advance when possible.
- Interview the Complainant and the Respondent and conduct any necessary follow-up interviews with each.
- Interview all available, relevant witnesses and conduct follow-up interviews as necessary.
- Provide each interviewed party and witness an opportunity to review and verify the Investigator's summary notes (or transcript or recording) of the relevant evidence/testimony from their respective interviews and meetings.
- Allow each party the opportunity to suggest witnesses and questions they wish the Investigator(s) to ask of another party and/or witnesses. Document which questions were asked with a rationale for any changes or omissions in the investigation report.
- Where possible, complete the investigation promptly and without unreasonable deviation from the intended timeline.
- Provide the parties with regular status updates throughout the investigation.
- Prior to the conclusion of the investigation, provide the parties and their respective Advisors with a list of witnesses whose information will be used to render a finding.

- Ask the parties to provide a list of questions they would like asked of the other party or any witnesses. The Investigator will ask those questions deemed relevant, and for any question deemed not relevant, will provide a rationale for not asking the question.
- Write a draft investigation report that gathers, assesses, and synthesizes the evidence, accurately summarizes the investigation and party and witness interviews, and provides all relevant evidence.
- Provide the parties and their respective Advisors an electronic copy of the draft investigation report as well as an opportunity to inspect and review all relevant evidence obtained as part of the investigation for a review and comment period of ten (10) business days so that each party may meaningfully respond to the evidence. The parties may elect to waive all or part of the review period.
- The Investigator may share the investigation report with the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator and/or legal counsel for their review and feedback.

21. Administrative Resolution Process

The Administrative Resolution Process is used for all Complaints of discrimination on the basis of protected characteristics, harassment, retaliation, and other prohibited conduct (as defined in Policy) or when Informal Resolution is either not elected or is unsuccessful.

The Administrative Resolution Process consists of a hand-off of the investigation report and all relevant evidence to the Decision-Making Panel to make a finding and determine sanctions (if applicable).

The assigned Decision-Making Panel will be a panel of three individuals, as follows:

- For matters involving a student Respondent, the Decision-Making Panel will typically be comprised of: 1) the Investigator; 2) a qualified individual with appropriate expertise chosen by the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator; and 3) the Dean of Students. The applicable Administrator has the discretion to modify the make-up of the Decision-Making Panel, as they deem appropriate.
- For matters involving an employee Respondent and allegations of sex-based discrimination, harassment, or retaliation, the Decision-Making Panel will typically be comprised of: 1) the Investigator; 2) a qualified individual with appropriate expertise chosen by the Title IX Coordinator; and 3) the Director of Human Resources. The Title IX Coordinator has the discretion to modify the make-up of the Decision-Making Panel, as they deem appropriate.
- For matters involving an employee Respondent and allegations that do not involve sex-based discrimination, harassment, or retaliation, the Decision-Making Panel will typically be comprised of three qualified individuals with appropriate training and expertise, as chosen by the Director of Human Resources and may include the Director of Human Resources.

The Decision-Making Panel will not be single-sex in its composition for matters in which sex-based discrimination, harassment, or retaliation are alleged.

Once the Decision-Making Panel receives and reviews the file, they will convene to discuss the file materials and Resolution Process. The Decision-Making Panel can recommend dismissal to the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, if the Decision-Making Panel members unanimously determine the grounds are met.

The Administrative Resolution Process typically takes approximately thirty (30) business days to complete, beginning with the Decision-Making Panel's receipt of the draft investigation report. The parties will be regularly updated on the timing and any significant deviation from this typical timeline.

Investigator-led Questioning Meetings

- The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator provides the draft investigation report to the Decision-Making Panel and the parties simultaneously for review. The members of the Decision-Making Panel can then provide the Investigator with a list of relevant questions to ask the parties or any witnesses.
 - To the extent credibility is in dispute and relevant to one or more of the allegations, the questions provided by the members of the Decision-Making Panel may also explore credibility.
- The Investigator will also ask each of the parties to provide a proposed list of questions to ask the other parties and any witnesses.
 - To the extent credibility is in dispute and relevant to one or more of the allegations, questions proposed by the parties may also explore credibility.
 - All party questions must be posed during this phase of the process and cannot be posed later unless authorized by the Decision-Making Panel.
 - The Investigator will share all party-proposed questions with the other members of the Decision-Making Panel, who will finalize the list with the Investigator to ensure all questions are both relevant and permissible.
- The Investigator will then hold individual meetings with the parties and witnesses to ask the questions posed by the Decision-Making Panel, as well as the questions proposed by the parties that have been deemed relevant and not duplicative, including questions intended to assess credibility. These meetings will be recorded and transcribed.
 - For any question deemed not relevant or duplicative, the Investigator will provide a rationale for not asking the question, either during the recorded meeting, or in writing (typically as an appendix to the Final Investigation Report).
- Typically, within three (3) business days of the last of these meetings, the recordings or transcripts of them will be provided to the parties for their review. The parties will then have five (5) business days to review these recordings or transcripts and propose any follow-up questions for the Investigator to ask.
- The Investigator will review the proposed questions with the Decision-Making Panel to determine relevance and permissibility. If deemed necessary, the Investigator will then meet individually with the parties or witnesses for whom there are relevant, and not duplicative, follow-up questions. These follow-up meetings will also be recorded, and the parties will receive the recordings or transcripts of these meetings. This final round of questioning is the last round permitted, unless permission is granted to extend by the Decision-Making Panel.

- The Investigator will then incorporate any new, relevant evidence and information obtained through the parties' review of the draft investigation report, the questioning, and follow-up meetings into a Final Investigation Report (the "FIR").
- The Investigator will also respond in writing (typically within the FIR) to the relevant elements of the parties' responses to the draft investigation report and incorporate relevant elements of the parties' written responses, additional relevant evidence, and any necessary revisions into the FIR.
- The Investigator will then share the FIR with the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator for their review and feedback.
- After considering any such feedback, the Investigator will provide the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator with the FIR.

The Decision-Making Panel's Determination

- The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will provide the Decision-Making Panel, the parties, and any Advisors with the FIR, including the evidence and information obtained through the Investigator-led Questioning meetings.
- The Decision-Making Panel will review the FIR, including all appendices, and convene, either in person or by videoconference, to determine next steps or to make a determination. All decisions of the Decision-Making Panel will be unanimous, or, if unanimity cannot be achieved, by majority vote.
- If the record is incomplete, the Decision-Making Panel may direct a re-opening of the investigation, or may direct or conduct any additional inquiry necessary, including informal meetings with the parties or any witnesses, if needed.
- Upon reviewing the relevant evidence, the Decision-Making Panel may also choose to pose additional questions:
 - To the extent credibility is in dispute and relevant to one or more of the allegations, the Decision-Making Panel may meet individually with the parties and witnesses to question them in order to assess their credibility. These meetings will be recorded, and the recording or transcript will be shared with the parties.
 - At their discretion, the Decision-Making Panel may also meet with any party or witness to ask additional relevant questions that will aid the Decision-Making Panel in making their findings. These meetings will be recorded, and the recording or transcript will be shared with the parties.
- The Decision-Making Panel will apply the preponderance of the evidence standard to make a determination on each of the allegations and, if applicable, any associated sanctions.
- Timeline. The Decision-Making Panel's determination process typically takes approximately ten (10) business days, but this timeframe can vary based on a number of factors and variables. The parties will be notified of any delays.

- Impact Statements. Prior to a determination, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will provide the parties with an opportunity to submit a written impact and/or mitigation statement. The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will review these statements upon receipt to determine whether there are any immediate needs, issues, or concerns, but will otherwise hold them until after the Decision-Making Panel has made determinations on the allegations. If there are any findings of a Policy violation, the Decision-Making Panel will request the Impact Statements from the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator and review them prior to determining sanctions. They will also be exchanged between the parties at that time.
- If it is later determined that a party or witness intentionally provided false or misleading information, that action could be grounds for re-opening a Resolution Process at any time, and/or referring that information to another process for resolution.

22. Sanctions

Factors the Decision-Making Panel may consider when determining sanctions and responsive actions include, but are not limited to:

- The nature, severity of, and circumstances surrounding the violation(s)
- The Respondent's disciplinary history
- The need for sanctions / responsive actions to bring an end to the discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation
- The need for sanctions / responsive actions to prevent the future recurrence of discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation
- The need to remedy the effects of the discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation on the Complainant and the community
- The impact on the parties
- The Respondent's acceptance of responsibility
- Any other information deemed relevant by the Decision-Making Panel

The sanctions will be implemented as soon as it is feasible once a determination is final, either upon the outcome of any appeal or the expiration of the window to appeal, without an appeal being requested.

The sanctions described in this Policy are not exclusive of, and may be in addition to, other actions taken, or sanctions imposed, by external authorities.

A. Student Sanctions

The following are the common sanctions that may be imposed upon students singly or in combination:

- Reprimand: A formal statement that the conduct was unacceptable and a warning that further violation of any Ripon College policy, procedure, or directive will result in more severe sanctions / responsive actions.
- Required Counseling: A mandate to meet with and engage in either Ripon College-sponsored or external counseling to better comprehend the misconduct and its effects.
- Restrictions: A student may be restricted in their activities, including, but not limited to, being restricted from locations, programs, participation in certain activities or extracurriculars, study abroad, or holding leadership roles in student organizations.
- Probation: An official sanction for violation of institutional policy, providing for more severe disciplinary sanctions in the event the student is found in violation of any institutional policy, procedure, or directive within a specified period of time. Terms of the probation will be articulated and may include denial of specified social privileges, exclusion from extra-curricular activities, exclusion from designated areas of campus, no-contact orders, and/or other measures deemed appropriate.
- Suspension: Separation from the institution, or one or more of its facilities, for a defined period of time, typically not to exceed two (2) years, after which the student is eligible to return. Eligibility may be contingent upon satisfaction of specific conditions noted at the time of suspension, on successfully applying for readmission, or upon a general condition that the student is eligible to return if the institution determines it is appropriate to re-enroll / readmit the student. The student is typically required to vacate institutional property within 24 hours of notification of the action, though this deadline may be extended at the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator or other appropriate official. During an institution-wide suspension, the student is banned from institutional property, functions, events, and activities unless they receive prior written approval from an appropriate institutional official. This sanction may be enforced with a trespass action, as necessary.
- Expulsion: Permanent separation from the institution. The student is banned from institutional property, and the student's presence at any institution-sponsored activity or event is prohibited. This action may be enforced with a trespass action, as necessary.
- Withholding Diploma: Ripon College may withhold a student's diploma for a specified period of time and/or deny a student participation in commencement activities as a sanction if the student is found responsible for violating Policy.
- Revocation of Degree: While very rarely exercised, Ripon College reserves the right to revoke a degree previously awarded from Ripon College for fraud, misrepresentation, and/or other violation of Ripon College policies, procedures, or directives in obtaining the degree, or for other serious violations committed by a student prior to graduation.
- Other Actions: In addition to, or in place of, the above sanctions, Ripon College may assign any other sanctions as deemed appropriate.

B. Student Group and Organization Sanctions

The following are the common sanctions that may be imposed upon student groups or organizations singly or in combination:

- Warning: A formal statement that the conduct was unacceptable and a warning that further violation of any Ripon College policy, procedure, or directive will result in more severe sanctions / responsive actions.
- Probation: An official sanction for violation of institutional policy, providing for more severe disciplinary sanctions in the event the group or organization is found in violation of any institutional policy, procedure, or directive within a specified period of time. Terms of the probation will be articulated and may include denial of specified social and event privileges, denial of Ripon College funds, ineligibility for honors and awards, restrictions on new member recruitment, no-contact orders, and/or other measures deemed appropriate.
- Suspension: Termination of student group or organization recognition and/or institutional support for a defined period of time, not to exceed two (2) years and/or until specific criteria are met. During the suspension period, a student group or organization may not conduct any formal or informal business or participate in Ripon College-related activities, whether they occur on- or off-campus. Re-recognition is possible but not guaranteed and will only be considered after the end of the suspension period and based on meeting all re-recognition criteria and obtaining clearance from Ripon College.
- Expulsion: Permanent termination of student group organization recognition and revocation of the privilege to congregate and conduct business on campus as an organization for any reason.
- Loss of Privileges: Restricted from accessing specific Ripon College privileges for a specified period.
- Other Actions: In addition to or in place of the above sanctions, Ripon College may assign any other sanctions as deemed appropriate.

C. Employee Sanctions/Responsive/Corrective Actions

Responsive actions for an employee who has engaged in, discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation include: verbally or written warning; performance improvement plan / management process; enhanced supervision, observation, or review; required counseling; required training or education; probation; denial or pay increase / pay grade; loss of oversight or supervisory responsibility; demotion; transfer; shift or schedule adjustments; reassignment; delay of (or referral for delay of) tenure track progress; assignment to a new supervisor; restriction of stipends, research, and/or professional development resources; suspension / administrative leave with or without pay; termination; or other actions. In addition to or in place of the above sanctions / responsive actions, Ripon College may assign any other responsive actions as deemed appropriate.

23. Notice of Outcome

Within ten (10) business days of the conclusion of the Resolution Process, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator provides the parties with a written outcome notification. The outcome notification will specify the finding for each alleged Policy violation, all applicable sanctions that Ripon College is permitted to share pursuant to state or federal law, and a detailed rationale, written by the Decision-Making Panel, supporting the findings to the extent Ripon College is permitted to share under federal or state law.

The notification will also detail the parties' equal rights to appeal, the grounds for appeal, the steps to request an appeal, and when the determination is considered final if no party appeals.

The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will provide the parties with the outcome notification simultaneously, or without significant time delay between notifications. The written outcome notification may be delivered by one or more of the following methods: in person, mailed to the parties' local or permanent address as indicated in official Ripon College records, or emailed to the parties' Ripon College-issued or designated email account. Once mailed, emailed, and/or received in person, the outcome notification is presumptively delivered.

24. Withdrawal or Resignation Before Complaint Resolution

A. Students

Should a student Respondent decide not to participate in the Resolution Process, the process proceeds absent their participation to a reasonable resolution. If a student Respondent withdraws from Ripon College, the Resolution Process may continue, or the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator may exercise their discretion to dismiss the Complaint. If the Complaint is dismissed, Ripon College will still provide reasonable supportive or remedial measures as deemed necessary to address safety and/or remedy any ongoing effects of the alleged conduct.

Regardless of whether the Complaint is dismissed or pursued to completion of the Resolution Process, Ripon College will continue to address and remedy any systemic issues or concerns that may have contributed to the alleged violation(s), and any ongoing effects of the alleged discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation.

When a student withdraws or leaves while the process is pending, the student may not return to Ripon College in any capacity until the Complaint is resolved and any sanctions imposed are satisfied. If the student indicates they will not return, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator has the discretion to dismiss the Complaint. The Registrar, Dean of Students, and HR may be notified accordingly.

If the student Respondent takes a leave for a specified period of time (e.g., one semester or term), the Resolution Process may continue remotely. If found in violation, that student is not permitted to return to Ripon College unless and until all sanctions, if any, have been satisfied.

B. Employees

Should an employee Respondent decide not to participate in the Resolution Process, the process proceeds absent their participation to a reasonable resolution. If an employee Respondent leaves their employment with Ripon College with unresolved allegations pending, the Resolution Process may continue, or the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator may exercise their discretion to dismiss the Complaint. If the Complaint is dismissed, Ripon College may still provide reasonable supportive or remedial measures as deemed necessary to address safety and/or remedy any ongoing effects of the alleged discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation.

When an employee resigns and the Complaint is dismissed, the employee may not return to Ripon College in any capacity. The Offices of Admission and Human Resources will be notified, accordingly. A note will be placed in the employee's file that they resigned with allegations pending and are not eligible for academic admission or rehire with Ripon College. The records retained by the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will reflect that status.

25. Appeal of the Determination

The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will designate an Appeal Decision-Maker, who will be a trained external expert, to hear the appeal. No Appeal Decision-Maker(s) will have been previously involved in the Resolution Process for the Complaint, including in any supportive measure challenge or dismissal appeal that may have been decided earlier in the process.

A. Appeal Grounds

Appeals are limited to the following grounds:

- 1) A procedural irregularity that would change the outcome.
- 2) New evidence that would change the outcome and that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility was made.
- 3) The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, Investigator(s), or other member of the Decision-Making Panel had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the specific Complainant or Respondent that would change the outcome.

B. Request for Appeal

Any party may submit a written request for appeal (“Request for Appeal”) to the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator within five (5) business days of the delivery of the Notice of Outcome.

The Request for Appeal will be forwarded to the Appeal Decision-Maker for consideration to determine if the request meets the grounds for appeal (a Review for Standing). This is not a review of the merits of the appeal, but solely a determination as to whether the request could reasonably be construed to meet the grounds and is timely filed.

If the Request for Appeal does not provide information that meets the grounds in this Policy, the request will be denied by the Appeal Decision-Maker, and the parties and their Advisors will be simultaneously notified in writing of the denial and the rationale.

If any of the information in the Request for Appeal meets the grounds in this Policy, then the Appeal Decision-Maker will notify all parties and their Advisors, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, and, when appropriate, the Investigator(s) and/or the original Decision-Making Panel.

All other parties and their Advisors, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, and, when appropriate, the Investigator(s) and/or the Decision-Making Panel will be provided a copy of the Request for Appeal with the approved grounds and then be given five (5) business days to submit a response to the portion of the appeal that was approved and involves them. The Appeal Decision-Maker will forward all responses, if any, to all parties for review and comment.

The non-appealing party (if any) may also choose to appeal at this time. If so, that Request for Appeal will be reviewed by the Appeal Decision-Maker to determine if it meets the grounds in this Policy and will either be approved or denied. If approved, it will be forwarded to the party who initially requested an appeal, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, and the Investigator(s) and/or original Decision-Making Panel, as necessary, who will submit their responses, if any, within five (5) business days. Any such responses will be circulated for review and comment by all parties. If denied, the parties and their Advisors will be notified accordingly, in writing.

No party may submit any new Requests for Appeal after this time period. The Appeal Decision-Maker will collect any additional information needed and all documentation regarding the approved appeal grounds, and the subsequent responses will be shared with the Appeal Decision-Maker, who will promptly render a decision.

C. Appeal Determination Process

In most cases, appeals are confined to a review of the written documentation or record of the original determination and pertinent documentation regarding the specific appeal grounds. The Appeal Decision-Maker will deliberate as soon as is practicable and discuss the merits of the appeal.

Appeal decisions are to be deferential to the original determination, making changes to the finding only when there is clear error and to the sanction(s) / responsive action(s) only if there is a compelling justification to do so. All decisions apply the preponderance of the evidence standard of proof.

An appeal is not an opportunity for the Appeal Decision-Maker to substitute their judgment for that of the original Decision-Making Panel merely because they disagree with the finding and/or sanction(s).

The Appeal Decision-Maker may consult with the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator and/or legal counsel on questions of procedure or rationale, for clarification, if needed. The Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will maintain documentation of all such consultation.

D. Appeal Outcome

An appeal may be granted or denied. Appeals that are granted should normally be remanded (or partially remanded) to the original Investigator(s) and/or Decision-Making Panel with corrective instructions for reconsideration. In rare circumstances where an error cannot be cured by the original Investigator(s) and/or Decision-Making Panel or the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator (as in cases of bias), the Appeal Decision-Maker may order a new investigation and/or a new determination with new (trained and qualified) individuals serving in the Investigator and Decision-Making Panel member roles.

A Notice of Appeal Outcome letter (“Appeal Outcome”) will be sent to all parties simultaneously, or without significant time delay between notifications. The Appeal Outcome will specify the finding on each appeal ground, any specific instructions for remand or reconsideration, all sanction(s) that may result which Ripon College is permitted to share according to federal or state law, and the rationale supporting the essential findings to the extent Ripon College is permitted to share under federal or state law.

Written notification may be delivered by one or more of the following methods: in person, mailed to the parties’ local or permanent address as indicated in official institutional records, or emailed to the parties’ Ripon College-issued email or otherwise approved account. Once mailed, emailed, and/or received in person, the Appeal Outcome will be presumptively delivered.

When appeals result in no change to the finding or sanction, that decision is final. When an appeal results in a new finding or sanction, that finding or sanction can be appealed one final time on the grounds listed above and in accordance with these procedures.

If a remand results in a new determination that is different from the appealed determination, that new determination can be appealed, once, on any of the three (3) available appeal grounds.

E. Sanction Status During the Appeal

Any sanctions imposed as a result of the determination are stayed (i.e., not implemented) during the appeal process, and supportive measures may be maintained or reinstated until the appeal determination is made.

If any of the sanctions are to be implemented immediately post-determination, but pre-appeal, then the emergency removal procedures (detailed above) for a “show cause” meeting on the justification for doing so must be permitted within two (2) business days of implementation.

26. Long-Term Remedies/Other Actions

Following the conclusion of the Resolution Process, and in addition to any sanctions implemented or Informal Resolution terms, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator may implement additional long-term remedies or actions with respect to the parties and/or the Ripon College community that are intended to stop the discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation, remedy the effects, and prevent recurrence.

These remedies/actions may include, but are not limited to:

- Referral to counseling and health services
- Referral to the Employee Assistance Program
- Course and registration adjustments, such as retroactive withdrawals
- Education to the individual and/or the community
- Permanent alteration of housing assignments
- Permanent alteration of work arrangements for employees
- Provision of campus safety escorts
- Climate surveys
- Policy modification and/or training
- Provision of transportation assistance
- Implementation of long-term contact limitations between the parties
- Implementation of adjustments to academic deadlines, course schedules, etc.

At the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, certain long-term supportive measures may also be provided to the parties even if no Policy violation is found.

When no Policy violation is found, the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator will address any remedies Ripon College owes the Respondent to ensure no effective denial of educational access.

Ripon College will maintain the confidentiality of any long-term remedies / actions / measures, provided confidentiality does not impair Ripon College's ability to provide these services.

27. Failure to Comply with Sanctions, Responsive Actions, and/or Informal Resolution Terms

All Respondents are expected to comply with the assigned sanctions, responsive actions, corrective actions, and/or Informal Resolution terms within the timeframe specified by the Decision-Making Panel, including the Appeal Decision-Maker or the Informal Resolution agreement.

Failure to abide by the sanction(s) / action(s) imposed by the date specified, whether by refusal, neglect, or for any other reason, may result in additional sanction(s) / action(s), including suspension, expulsion, and/or termination from Ripon College.

Supervisors are expected to enforce the completion of sanctions / responsive actions for their employees.

A suspension imposed for non-compliance with sanctions will only be lifted when compliance is achieved to the Title IX Coordinator's / Administrator's satisfaction.

28. Recordkeeping

A. Applicable Records

All records maintained in any medium that are created pursuant to this Policy and/or the regular business of Ripon College's Title IX Office are considered private or confidential by the Title IX Office, in accordance with FERPA and the directive from the Department of Education to maintain the confidentiality of records related to discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. These records may be shared internally with those who have a legitimate educational interest and will be shared with the parties to a Complaint under applicable federal and/or state law. The Title IX Office controls the dissemination and sharing of any records under its control.

Records pertaining to the Policy include, but are not limited to:

- The Complaint
- NOIAs
- Documentation of notice to the institution, including incident Reports

- Anonymous Reports later linked to a specific incident involving known parties
- Any documentation supporting the initial evaluation
- Investigation-related evidence (e.g., physical and documentary evidence collected, interview transcripts)
- Dismissal-related documentation and appeals
- Documentation related to Emergency Removals, leaves, and interim actions and challenges
- Documentation related to the Resolution Process
- The Final Investigation Report and file
- Remedy-related documentation
- Supportive measures-related documentation
- Appeal-related documentation
- Informal Resolution records
- Outcome Notices
- Any other records maintained by Ripon College as part of the Complaint file

Preliminary drafts and “working files” are not considered records that Ripon College must maintain, and these are typically destroyed during the course of an investigation or at the conclusion of the Resolution Process. They are preliminary versions of records and other documents that do not state a final position on the subject matter reviewed or are not considered to be in final form by their author and/or the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator. An example of a “working file” would be the Investigator’s notes made during an interview on topics that they want to revisit in subsequent interviews. Sole possession records maintained as such in accordance with FERPA are also included in this category. All drafts of investigation reports shared with the parties are maintained.

Communications from the Title IX Office or its designees with Ripon College’s legal counsel may be work product protected by attorney-client privilege. These privileged communications are not considered records to be maintained by the Title IX Office or accessible under this Policy unless the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator, in consultation with legal counsel as necessary, determines that these communications should be included as accessible records.

B. Record Storage

Records may be created and maintained in different media formats; this Policy applies to all records, irrespective of format. All records created pursuant to the Policy, as defined above, must be stored in digital format and maintained by the Title IX Office. The complete file must be transferred to the Title IX Office, typically within fourteen (14) business days of the complaint resolution (including any appeal), if the file is not already maintained within the Title IX Office. Security protocols must be in place to preserve the integrity and privacy of any parts of any record that are maintained in the Title IX Office during the pendency of an investigation.

The Title IX Office will store all records created pursuant to the Policy, regardless of the identities of the parties. Any extra (non-essential) copies of the records (both digital and paper) must be destroyed.

A copy of records showing compliance with any applicable Clery Act/Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) requirements will be maintained along with the Complaint file by the Title IX Office.

C. Title IX Training Materials

Ripon College will also maintain copies of the slides or other materials from all Title IX training for the Nondiscrimination Team, Investigator, other members of the Decision-Making Panel, Appeals Decision-Maker, and employees. Training materials are available for review upon request to the Title IX Coordinator / Administrator.

D. Record Retention

All records created and maintained pursuant to the Policy will be retained by the Title IX Office or office of the appropriate Nondiscrimination Team member for a minimum of seven (7) years in database, digital, and/or paper form. Except for records pertaining to Title IX and the Clery Act/VAWA, the applicable Administrator may authorize destruction or expungement acting under their own discretion, or in accordance with a duly executed and binding claim settlement and/or by court or government order.

E. Record Access

Access to records created pursuant to the Policy or housed in the Title IX Office is strictly limited to the Title IX Coordinator and any person they authorize in writing, at their discretion, or via permission levels within the database. Those who are granted broad access to the Title IX Office records are expected to access only those pertinent to their scope, work, or specific assignment. Anyone who accesses such records without proper authorization may be subject to an investigation and possible discipline / sanction. The discipline / sanction for unauthorized access of records covered by this Policy will be at the discretion of the appropriate disciplinary authority, consistent with other relevant Ripon College policies and procedures.

Student parties may request access to their complaint file. Ripon College will provide access or a copy within 45 days of the request. Appropriate redactions of personally identifiable information may be made before inspection, or any copy is shared.

During the investigation, materials may be shared with the parties using secure file transmission software. The applicable Administrator will watermark any such file with the watermark identifying the role of the person in the process (e.g., Complainant, Respondent, Decision-Making Panel Member; Complainant's Advisor) before sharing.

Ripon College will maintain an access log of each case file, showing when and by whom it was accessed and for what purpose.

F. Record Security

The Nondiscrimination Team is expected to maintain appropriate security practices for all records, including password protection, lock and key, and other barriers to access as appropriate. Record security should include protection from floods, fire, and other potential emergencies. Clothing, forensic, and other physical evidence related to sex-based allegations should be securely stored in the Title IX Office or another appropriate secure location. All physical evidence will be maintained in a facility that is reasonably protected from flood and fire. A catalog of all physical evidence will be retained with the Complaint file.

29. Accommodations and Support During the Resolution Process

Disability Accommodations

Ripon College is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and support to qualified students, employees, or others with disabilities to ensure equal access to Ripon College's Resolution Process. Anyone needing such accommodations or support should contact the Coordinator of Disability Services, who will review the request and, in consultation with the person requesting the accommodation, determine which accommodations are appropriate and necessary for full process participation.

Other Support

Ripon College will also address reasonable requests for support for the parties and witnesses, including:

- Language services/Interpreters
- Access and training regarding use of technology throughout the Resolution Process
- Other support as deemed reasonable and necessary to facilitate participation in the Resolution Process

30. Revision of these Procedures

These procedures succeed any previous procedures addressing discrimination, harassment, and retaliation for incidents occurring on or after August 1, 2024. The Nondiscrimination Team will regularly review and update these procedures. Ripon College reserves the right to make changes to these procedures as necessary, and once those changes are posted online, they are in effect.

If governing laws or regulations change, or court decisions alter, the requirements in a way that impacts these procedures, these procedures will be construed to comply with the most recent governing laws, regulations, or court holdings.

These procedures do not create legally enforceable protections beyond the protections of the background federal and state laws that frame such policies and codes, generally.

These procedures are effective August 1, 2024.

APPENDIX C: VIOLENCE RISK ASSESSMENT (VRA)

Threat assessment is the process of assessing the actionability of violence by a person against another person or group following the issuance of a direct or conditional threat. A Violence Risk Assessment (VRA) is a broader term used to describe assessment of any potential violence or danger, regardless of the presence of a vague, conditional, or direct threat.

Implementing a VRA requires specific training. It is typically conducted by psychologists, clinical counselors, social workers, case managers, law enforcement officers, student conduct professionals, and/or other Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) (sometimes known as CARE team) members.

A VRA occurs in collaboration with the Dean of Students and must be understood as an ongoing process, rather than as a single evaluation or meeting. A VRA is not an evaluation for an involuntary behavioral health hospitalization (e.g., 5150 in California, Section XII in Massachusetts, Baker Act in Florida), nor is it a psychological or mental health assessment.

A VRA assesses the risk of actionable violence, often with a focus on targeted/predatory escalations. It is supported by research from law enforcement, criminology, human resources, and psychology.

When conducting a VRA, the assessor(s) use(s) an evidence-based process consisting of:

- 1) An appraisal of risk factors that escalate the potential for violence.
- 2) A determination of stabilizing influences, or protective factors, that reduce the risk of violence.
- 3) A contextual analysis of violence risk by considering environmental circumstances, hopelessness, and suicidality; catalyst events; nature and actionability of the threat; fixation and focus on target; grievance collection; and action and time imperative for violence.
- 4) The application of intervention and management approaches to reduce the risk of violence.

To assess a person's level of violence risk, the Title IX Coordinator will initiate the VRA process through the Dean of Students. The Dean of Students will assign a trained person(s) to perform the assessment, according to the specific nature of the complaint.

The assessor(s) will rely on a consistent, research-based, reliable system that allows for the evaluation of the risk levels. Some examples of formalized approaches to the VRA process include The NABITA Risk Rubric, The Structured Interview for Violence Risk Assessment (SIVRA-35), Violence Risk Assessment of the Written Word (VRAWW), Workplace Assessment of Violence Risk (WAVR-21), Historical Clinical Risk Management (HCR-20), and MOSAIC.

The VRA is conducted independently from the Resolution Process, informed by it, but free from outcome pressure. The person(s) conducting the assessment will be trained to mitigate any bias and provide the analysis and findings in a fair and equitable manner.

The Dean of Students conducts a VRA process and makes a recommendation to the Title IX Coordinator as to whether the VRA indicates there is a substantial, compelling, and/or imminent and serious threat to the health and/or safety of a person or the community.

In some circumstances, the Title IX Coordinator may determine that a VRA should be conducted by the Dean of Students as part of the initial evaluation of a Complaint under this Policy. A VRA can aid in critical and/or required determinations, including:

- 1) Whether to remove the Respondent on an emergency basis because of an immediate threat to a person or the community's health or safety (Emergency Removal)
- 2) Whether the Title IX Coordinator should pursue or initiate a Complaint absent a willing or able Complainant
- 3) Whether the scope of an investigation should include an incident, and/or pattern of misconduct, and/or climate of discrimination or harassment
- 4) To help identify potential predatory conduct
- 5) To help assess or identify grooming behaviors
- 6) Whether it is reasonable to try to resolve a Complaint through Informal Resolution, and if so, what approach may be most successful
- 7) Whether to impose transcript notation or communicate with a transfer institution about a Respondent
- 8) Assessment of appropriate sanctions or remedies (to be applied post-determination)
- 9) Whether a Clery Act Timely Warning/Trespass order or Persona Non Grata is needed

A compelling risk to health and/or safety may result from evidence of patterns of misconduct, predatory conduct, threats, abuse of minors, use of weapons, and/or violence. Institutions may be compelled to act on alleged employee misconduct irrespective of a Complainant's wishes.

APPENDIX D: NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATION

Long Format:

Ripon College adheres to all federal, state, and local civil rights laws prohibiting discrimination and harassment in employment and education. Ripon College does not discriminate in its admissions practices, employment practices, or educational programs or activities on the basis of sex, except as may be permitted by law. Sex includes sex assigned at birth, sex stereotypes, sex characteristics, gender identity, sexual orientation, and pregnancy or related conditions. Sex discrimination is prohibited under Title IX and by Ripon College Policy, and it includes sex-based harassment, sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, stalking, quid pro quo harassment, hostile environment harassment, disparate treatment, and disparate impact.

Ripon College also prohibits retaliation against any person opposing discrimination or harassment or participating in any internal or external investigation or complaint process related to allegations of sex discrimination.

Any Ripon College employee or student who acts to deny, deprive, or limit the educational, employment, residential, or social access, opportunities, and/or benefits of any member of the Ripon College community on the basis of sex is in violation of the Ripon College Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Nondiscrimination Policy.

Any person may report sex discrimination (whether or not the person reporting is alleged to have experienced the conduct) in person, by mail, by telephone, by video, or by email, using the contact information listed for the Title IX Coordinator (below). A report may be made at any time (including during non-business hours) by contacting the Title IX Coordinator.

APPENDIX E: PREGNANCY AND RELATED CONDITIONS AND PARENTING STUDENT POLICY

Non-Discrimination Statement

Ripon College does not discriminate in its education program or activity against any applicant for admission, student, applicant for employment, or employee on the basis of current, potential, or past pregnancy or related conditions as mandated by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX). Ripon College prohibits members of the Ripon College community from adopting or implementing any policy, practice, or procedure that treats an applicant for admission, student, applicant for employment, or employee differently on the basis of current, potential, or past parental, family, or marital status. This policy and its pregnancy-related protections apply to all pregnant persons, regardless of gender identity or expression.

Definitions

- Familial Status. The configuration of one’s family or one’s role in a family.
- Marital Status. The state of being married or unmarried.
- Parental Status. The status of a person who, with respect to another person who is under the age of 18,¹⁷ is a biological, adoptive, foster, or stepparent; a legal custodian or guardian; in loco parentis with respect to such a person; or actively seeking legal custody, guardianship, visitation, or adoption of such a person.
- Pregnancy and Related Conditions. The full spectrum of processes and events connected with pregnancy, including pregnancy, childbirth, termination of pregnancy, or lactation; related medical conditions; and recovery therefrom.¹⁸
- Reasonable Modifications. Individualized modifications to Ripon College’s policies, practices, or procedures that do not fundamentally alter Ripon College’s education program or activity.

Information Sharing Requirements

Any Ripon College employee who becomes aware of a student’s pregnancy or related condition is required to: 1) provide the student with the Title IX Coordinator’s contact information; 2) communicate to the student that the Title IX Coordinator can help take specific actions to prevent discrimination and ensure equal access to Ripon College's education program and activity; and 3) notify the Title IX Coordinator. If the employee has a reasonable belief that the Title IX Coordinator is already aware of the pregnancy or related condition, the employee is not required to provide the student with the Title IX Coordinator's contact information or inform the Title IX Coordinator of the student's pregnancy or related condition.

¹⁷ Or a person who is 18 or older but who is incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability.

Upon notification of a student's pregnancy or related condition, the Title IX Coordinator will contact the student and inform the student of Ripon College's obligations to:

- Prohibit sex discrimination.
- Provide reasonable modifications.
- Allow access, on a voluntary basis, to any separate and comparable portion of the institution's education program or activity.
- Allow a voluntary leave of absence.
- Ensure lactation space availability.
- Maintain a Resolution Process for alleged discrimination.
- Treat pregnancy as comparable to other temporary medical conditions for medical benefit, service, plan, or policy purposes.

The Title IX Coordinator will also notify the student of the process to file a complaint for alleged discrimination, harassment, or retaliation, as applicable.

Reasonable Modifications for Students

Students who are pregnant or are experiencing related conditions are entitled to Reasonable Modifications to prevent sex discrimination and ensure equal access to Ripon College's education program and activity. Any student seeking Reasonable Modifications must contact the Title IX Coordinator to discuss appropriate and available Reasonable Modifications based on their individual needs. Students are encouraged to request Reasonable Modifications as promptly as possible, although retroactive modifications may be available in some circumstances. Reasonable Modifications are voluntary, and a student can accept or decline the offered Reasonable Modifications. Not all Reasonable Modifications are appropriate for all contexts.

Reasonable Modifications may include:

- Breaks during class to express breast milk, breastfeed, or attend to health needs associated with pregnancy or related conditions, including eating, drinking, or using the restroom
- Intermittent absences to attend medical appointments
- Access to online or homebound education
- Changes in schedule or course sequence
- Time extensions for coursework and rescheduling of tests and examinations
- Allowing a student to sit or stand, or carry or keep water nearby
- Counseling

- Changes in physical space or supplies (for example, access to a larger desk or a footrest)
- Elevator access
- A larger uniform or other required clothing or equipment
- Other changes to policies, practices, or procedures determined by the Title IX Coordinator

In situations such as performances, labs, and group work, the institution will work with the student to devise an alternative path to completion, if needed and possible. In progressive curricular and/or cohort-model programs, medically necessary leaves are sufficient cause to permit the student to shift course order, substitute similar courses, or join a subsequent cohort when returning from leave. Students are encouraged to work with their faculty members and Ripon College's support systems to devise a plan for how to best address the conditions as pregnancy progresses, anticipate the need for leaves, minimize the academic impact of their absence, and get back on track as efficiently and comfortably as possible. The Title IX Coordinator will assist with plan development and implementation as needed.

Supporting documentation for Reasonable Modifications will only be required when it is necessary and reasonable under the circumstances to determine which Reasonable Modifications to offer to determine other specific actions to take to ensure equal access.

Information about pregnant students' requests for modifications will be shared with faculty and staff only to the extent necessary to provide the Reasonable Modification.

Students experiencing pregnancy-related conditions that manifest as a temporary disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act are eligible for reasonable accommodations just like any other student with a temporary disability. The Title IX Coordinator will consult with the Coordinator of Disability Services to ensure the student receives reasonable accommodation for their disability as required by law.

Certification to Participate

All students should be informed of health and safety risks related to participation in academic and co-curricular activities, regardless of pregnancy status. A student may not be required to provide health care provider or other certification that the student is physically able to participate in the program or activity, unless:

1. The certified level of physical ability or health is necessary for participation;
2. The institution requires such certification of all students participating; and
3. The information obtained is not used as a basis for pregnancy-related discrimination.

Lactation Space Access

Ripon College provides students and employees with access to lactation spaces that are functional, appropriate, and safe. Such spaces are regularly cleaned, shielded from view, and free from the intrusion of others. For assistance in locating a lactation space, students may contact the Title IX Coordinator, and employees may contact the Director of Human Resources.

Leaves of Absence

Students

Students are permitted to take a voluntary leave of absence for a reasonable time as deemed medically necessary by their healthcare provider because of pregnancy and/or the birth, adoption, or placement of a child. The leave term may be extended in the case of extenuating circumstances or medical necessity. To the extent possible, Ripon College will take reasonable steps to ensure that students who take a leave of absence or medical leave return to the same position of academic progress that they were in when they took leave, including access to the same or an equivalent course catalog that was in place when the leave began.

Continuation of students' scholarships, fellowships, or similar Ripon College-sponsored funding during the leave term will depend on student registration status and the policies of the funding program regarding registration status. Students will not be negatively impacted by or forfeit their future eligibility for their scholarship, fellowship, or similar Ripon College-supported funding by exercising their rights under this policy. The Title IX Office can and will advocate for students with respect to financial aid agencies and external scholarship providers in the event that a leave of absence places eligibility into question.

In order to initiate a leave of absence, the student must contact the Title IX Coordinator at least 30 calendar days prior to the initiation of leave, or as soon as practicable. The Coordinator will assist the student in completing any necessary paperwork.

Employees

Information on employment leave can be found in the Employee Handbook. If an employee, including a student-employee, is not eligible for leave under the aforementioned leave policy because they either (1) do not have enough leave time available under that policy, or (2) have not been employed long enough to qualify for leave under that policy, they are eligible to qualify for pregnancy or related condition leave under Title IX. Pregnancy and related conditions will be regarded as a justification for a leave of absence without pay for a reasonable period of time. Employees who take leave under Title IX must be reinstated to the status held when leave began or a comparable position without a negative effect on any employment privilege or right.

Ripon College Housing

A pregnant student's Ripon College housing status will not be altered based on pregnancy status unless requested by the student, in which case Ripon College will determine whether such an alteration request can be honored.

Policy Dissemination and Training

A copy of this policy will be made available to employees in annually required training and posted on the Ripon College website. Ripon College will alert all new students about this policy and the location of this policy as part of orientation. The Title IX Office will make educational materials available to all members of the Ripon College community to promote compliance with this policy and familiarity with its procedures.
